PRINTERS AND EMPLOYERS CAN'T AGREE

FORTY FOUR HOUR WEEK THREATENS TO DISRUPT INDUSTRY

Shop Owners Say That It Means Business Suicide—Printers Come Back With the Prediction of the Greatest Fight in the Trade's History—Council is Adjourned

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 2.—Declaration by employers that the forty four hour week in the printing industry means business suicide and reiteration of union heads that failure to accede to the shorter week would precipitate the greatest fight in the trade's history marked today's conferences of the international joint conference council of printing employers and employes.

The controversy hinged about a referendum vote taken in 1919 by the five unions favoring establishment of the 44 hour week on the present 48 hour wage scale, and later agreed to by the United Typothetae of America. Many employers, however, contend they are not bound by the typothetae's action, and representatives appeared at an open session today to voice their objections.

Speaking for the closed shop division of the typothetae, Harris Hatch of Philadelphia explained that the council had no power, but had recommended the 44-hour week, which was accepted in convention. John W. Hasty, Chicago, another member, declared that the convention was not representative.

Employers Do Not Feel Bound.

The organized group of employers does not feel bound by the recommendations of the council nor the action of the Typothetae in the opinion of Edward A Brewster of Joliet, Ill. He explained that of the 35,000 employing printers in the country 5,000 were members of the typothetae and but 1,500 of that number had closed shops. He declared himself against the 44 hour week, saying such a movement would drive employers to the open shop.

A. A. Tomlinson of Houston, Texas, and Lawrence E. Smith, of Kansas City, Mo., added their voices of protest to the shorter week, Mr. Smith asserting that business suicide was certain if such action was taken.

Vigorous talks in which the principle of the shorter work week was upheld and declaration made that the 160,000 printers and the 10,000 women of the bookbinders' union would fight against any opposition were made by various union officers.

Is Humane Proposition.

George L. Perry, president of the Pressmen asserted the move was a humane proposition and the employes were a unit for its establishment.

John McParland, president of the Typographical Union, added the prediction that the employers would have the greatest fight on their hands ever known in the printing industry if the 44 hour week was not instituted May 1.

Hope that the joint council would be able to iron out the difficulties was voiced. William Green, New York expressed belief that the employers who ratified the shorter week in 1919 should stick to their agreement. Negotiations should then be worked out he said, to cover other employers.

The council tonight adjourned to meet in New York on June 17, without reaching an agreement concerning immediate establishment of the 44 hour week advocated by the employes.

James J. Freel, president of the International Electrotypers & Stereotypers Union, said the 44 hours week would go into effect on May 1, 1921, as previously agreed.

LONDON HEARS OF LARGE CASUALTIES

London, April 2.—Heavy fighting is continuing around the city of Eski-Shehr, Asia Minor, according to a Reuter message from Smyrna with the Turks holding up the Greek advance. The total Greek casualties are reported to be more than 7,000.

The railroad today, the message adds, refused transportation to the Greek troops it being the intention to force requisition of the railroad lines in order to place responsibility upon the Greek government for whatever damage is caused to them.

ITALY TO SIGN TRADE AGREEMENT WITH RUSSIA

Rome, April 2.—Announcement was made in the senate today by Count Sforza the foreign minister that the government hoped soon to sign a commercial agreement with Russia. But it was intended, he added to see that the clause prohibiting political propaganda was strictly observed

ENGLISH MINING STRIKE SO FAR IS NOT SERIOUS

Several Mines Have Been Left by Pumpmen to be Flooded

GOVERNMENT WILL RATION COAL SUPPLY

By Associated Press.

LONDON, April 2—No serious disorders have occurred in the great mining strike, altho several coal mines have been left by the pumpmen and engineers to be flooded and the men are said to be disyplayng an ugler temper especially in South Wales. Fears are expressed that there may be a much wider withdrawal of the engine men and pumpmen and the government is taking all necessary precautions.

It is expected that on Monday orders will be issued for the drastic rationing of coal for lighting purposes, householders being reduced to one hundred weight weekly and factories and business concerns to fifty per cent of their normal consumption.

Food supplies are ample for the present according to the board of trade. Long statements were sent out today for publication by the new chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Robert Stevenson Horne in behalf of the government and by Arthur Henderson and Frank Hodges for the miners, justifying the opposing attitudes.

The miners' representatives accuse the government of heedlessly precipitating the crisis by premature removal of control over the industry. The chancellor ignores this point and bases his statement upon the impossibility of asking taxpayers to shoulder further burdens in order to subsidize the coal industry, or of submitting to intimidation aimed at forcing the government to agree to such a subsidy.

Alfred Bigland, coaliton Unionist for Birkenhead who was a member of the grand committee of the house of commons on the decentrol bill, makes the suggestion that the right solution for the dispute is to rescind this bill and make the time limit for control May 30 instead of March 31.

This suggestion from a Unionist who is free from suspicion or undue sympathy with the miners is regarded as significant.

ADVANCE OF GREEK FORCES IS STOPPED

Constantinople, April 2.—Further confirmation has been received here of reports that the Greeks have suffered a severe set-back at Eskir-Shehr and also that they are unable at present to continue their advance.

The Greek official communique says that the Greek army is repulsing violent attacks. The Turkish communique says:

"We have won a complete victory on the Eski-Shehr front and are repulsing the enemy. We broke thru the left wing and the center is yielding. The Greek losses are heavy."

RESOLUTION MAY BE PRESENTED FOR IMMEDIATE PEACE

To be Presented When Congress Convenes on April 18

DISCUSSION SATURDAY CONSIDERED IMPORTANT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Senate proponents of an immediate peace with Germany by congressional resolution are understood to be standing firmly by their intention to present such a resolution promptly on convening of congress a week from Monday.

Information that senators favoring a speedy peace by resolution had not abandoned their previously announced intention was obtained tonight after a notable White House conferences at which the advisability of congressional declaration of peace together with other questions involved in a peace settlement were understood to have been discussed.

Whether the intention of peace by resolution senators has been approved in any degree by President Harding and whether it has the support of senate Republicans generally were matters on which no information was available.

The conferences at the White House today were generally considered in their bearing on international affairs as probably the most important that President Harding has held since his inauguration.

Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, author of the Republican peace resolution of the last session of congress; Col. George Harvey of New York, selected as ambassador to Great Britain; Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, understood to be under consideration for ambassador to France, and Stephane Luzanne, noted French journalist, who came to this country with former Premier Viviani, were among those with whom the president was closeted during the day. All declined to say what specific proposals were discussed or to indicate when decisions might be expected.

By inference, the day's developments were coupled with the visit of M. Viviani, who has brought to American officials a first hand report as to the present attitude of the European governments toward the league of nations and related subjects. Gossip about mission of the former premier persistently has suggested that he proposed to persuade the administration not to push its peace declaration, but rather to consider on what basis it might accept the treaty of Versailles.

Senator Knox went to the White House at the president's invitation, and they spent more than two hours together. The visit started a new outcropping of speculation about fate of the peace resolution, but was followed by no authoritative announcement as to whether the measure would be pressed at the outset of the special session of congress. The impression given was that the administration was feeling its way into the light of the information and advice brought by M. Viviani and that a definite policy was yet to be formed.

PROMINENT GRAIN MAN DEAD IN PEORIA

(By The Associated Press)

PEORIA, Ill., April 2.—A. W. Harwood, member of the Chicago Board of Trade and secretary of the Harwood Grain company, died here this afternoon of pneumonia, after a two days' illness, following an operation for stomach trouble.

Mr. Harwood, who was 30 years old, was the youngest man ever elected president of the Peoria Board of Trade, having been selected to head that organization when 27 years old.

He was a member of the board of directors when he died.

His father, Arthur N. Harwood, is a member of the Chicago firm of Carhart, Code & Harwood.

ROSTER OF NEW ORDER HAS HARDING'S NAME

Washington, April 2.—Marion Local No. 1, Order of the Elephant, an organization of fifteen newspapermen whose membership roll includes the name of Warren G. Harding of the Marion Daily Star, held its semi-annual dinner tonight at the White House.

Besides Mr. Harding the other members are correspondents of metropolitan dailies and press associations who went thru last year's presidential campaign with him. The president holds the rank of Chief Mahout in the order organized last September at Marion.

Condensed Telegraphic News

(By The Associated Press)

A new record for consumptioon of pulp wood in California, Oregon and Washington was made in 1920, the department of agriculture announced at Washington yesterday. The amount consumed exceeded by 23,000 cords or 7.4 per cent the previous high mark.

Increased industrial operations in New York City during the last three months are believed to have decreased the number of unemployed by one-third, the industrial bureau of the Merchants' association announced last night.

Financial assistance for the Grand Forks, N. D., American, a daily newspaper which recently suspended publication, was voted by the executive committee of the non-partisan league in North Dakota yesterday.

President Harding has been petitioned by railway labor to reappoint J. J. Forrester, whose term as a member of the railroad board expires April 15, Chief Clerk R. D. Mundy of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, said at Cincinnati last night.

The international communications conference meeting at Barcelona, Spain, yesterday adopted Article 3 of the railroad convention, by which the signatory powers to agree to recognize the adoption of measures providing for the interchange of rolling stock.

A resolution protesting against the granting of executive clemency of E. V. Debs, now in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., "while service men are imprisoned for infractions of military law during the war," was adopted last night by the executive committee of the Oklahoma American Legion meeting at Oklahoma city.

The Franco-Spanish congress to improve the social and commercial relations between the two countries adopted resolutions yesterday at San Sebastian, Spain, in favor of improved commercial relations.

Gov. H. M. Dorsey of Georgia, in a telegram received last night at New York by the national association for the Advancement of Colored People, announced he would do all in his power to bring to punishment persons responsible for the alleged peonage system and subsequent death of eleven negroes in Jasper county, Georgia.

Maxim Gorky, the Russian writer, in a letter to the Finnish painter, Axel Gallen, declares the Russian intellectuals must be helped, according to a despatch from Stockholm last night. Their position is unbearable and the death rate is growing fast. With the death of the cultured, Gorky says, dies the whole nation's intellectual life.

Former Army Lieut. Kills University Head

(By The Associated Press)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 2.—Dr. Holmes Beckwith, educator, former United States army lieutenant and California bank examiner, who shot and killed his superior, Dean John H. Wharton, at Syracuse University, this morning, before committing suicide, was probably insane as a result of chagrin over losing his position here, according to authorities and Chancellor James R. Day, of the University, tonight.

That Beckwith had premeditated suicide has been clearly established, the instructor having left several letters showing his intention in that respect. The theory that Dr. Wharton had been killed in an unsuccessful attempt to prevent Beckwith's suicide has been cast aside.

Coroner S. E. Crane, District Attorney Malpass and Chancellor Day are agreed that Dr. Wharton was shot following an argument when Beckwith presented a letter in answer to Wharton's notification that the university would have no need of Beckwith's services after the close of college in June.

Five Bullets in Body

Five bullets were found in Dr. Wharton's body, indicating that Beckwith had made sure his superior was dead before he turned the revolver upon himself.

Dean Wharton was in his thirty-second year and had been an instructor at Syracuse University since his graduation from that institution eight years ago. He was made dean of the College of Business Administration two years ago and Beckwith was an instructor under him.

Beckwith had been strict in discipline and had some peculiarities which made him more or less a victim for students' pranks, and he was decidedly unpopular with them.

University authorities had convinced themselves that Beckwith was a liability rather than an asset, and last Monday he received his notification to look elsewhere for a teaching assignment next fall.

Friday night he spent hours in his room writing letters. One was addressed to Dean Wharton, saying among other things:

"A cornered rat will fight."

He asked that his uncle, George Holmes, of Montclair, N. J., be notified.

Had Turbulent Career

That he had a rather turbulent career and regarded at least two persons, outside of Syracuse, who had figured in his troubles in the educational world, as being worthy subjects for murder, is shown in the story of his life, written under date of March 30, and turned over according to his written wishes to Professor John O. Simmons, a faculty member here.

Discussing his discharge at Colorado College, Dr. Beckwith speaks of a Mr. Howbert, a bank president, apparently one of the board of governors, and writes:

"Mr. Howbert's anger knew no bounds. I have never met him. I think a man to take the action he did is so unjust he should be shot."

In his story written of his life, he discusses troubles he had at Grinnell College, in Iowa, which evidently culminated while he was serving in the army, he wrote:

"I would have murdered Mr. Main, who certainly deserves the end in having treacherously betrayed one in his country's service. Then I would have shot myself."

The story of Beckwith's life shows he was born October 5, 1884, in the Hawaiian Islands. His father and grandfather were Congregational ministers and his one sister, Ruth Beckwith Bulleck, is a missionary in China.

He attended the Pacific Theological School at Berkeley, but did not complete the course. In 1911 he was graduated from Columbia. He married Helen Frances Robinson of California. They separated some time ago.

DEATH LOSSES ARE REDUCED TO NINE

(By The Associated Press)

SEATTLE, Wash., April 2.—Death losses from the sinking of the Steamship Governor off Point Wilson early yesterday were reduced to nine late today, when an error in the list of survivors was cleared up by the discovery that the name of Carl Kasau, Los Angeles, reported missing should have been Alvado Risean Spokane, Wash., who was saved.

The Governor, valued at $1,500,000, is a total loss and the Pacific Steamship company will make no effort to salvage her, officers of the company announced.

STEAL LIBERTY BONDS FROM TELLER'S CAGE

Baltimore, Md., April 2.—Reaching thru the grating of the paying teller's window at the Calvert Bank in the heart of the shopping district today, three men succeeded in stealing $2,850 worth of Liberty bonds, using sticks to which were attached bits of chewing gum to draw the bonds from the shelf behind the window. They then walked out and disappeared. The teller was absent from the cage at the time.

PRESIDENT PARDONS PROHI VIOLATORS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Four pardons and 24 commutations of the sentences have been granted by President Harding since his inauguration. The majority of the commutations, it was learned today, were for prisoners convicted of violations of the prohibition laws, but no prisoners were pardoned for sucuh offenses.

Of the prisoners whose sentences have been commuted by President Harding, nine were convicted for violation of the prohibition laws, six for illicit distilling and the rest for the use of the mails to defraud and violations of the Mann act. Pardons extended by the president were for offenses against the national bankruptcy act, carrying concealed weapons and forgery.

SIMPLICITY MARKED FINAL RITES FOR JOHN BURROUGHS

Was Reminiscent of Career of Great Naturalist

AGED BOYHOOD FRIEND RIDES LONG DISTANCE

(By The Associated Press)

WEST PARK, N. Y., April 2.—In the rustic house that was the retreat of John Burroughs for nearly half a century, 150 representatives of the thousands of nature lovers who admired his outdoor life and writings, gathered today at his funeral.

The ceremonies were short, simple and reminiscent of the career which the great naturalist pursued among the hills and streams and flowers and beside his rugged stone hearth with volumes of Emerson, Whittier and Wadsworth.

Scientists and manufacturers of wide prominence mingled in sorrow with Boy Scouts and the children of the neighborhood. Publishers and horticulturists bowed reverent heads with a group of religious men from the Holycross monastery. The mourners came from among the rocks and rills of New England, the shores of Lake Michigan, the great stone buildings of New York and the snows of Canada to look for the last time upon the patriarchal countenance of the naturalist.

Among them were Thomas A. Edison, Henry Ford and Harvey S. Firestone, who for several years have spent their vacation cut doors with Mr. Burroughs. Next to Mr Edison stood an aged and gray-haired man who had pedalled his bicycle from Binghampton, more than 200 miles away to witness the funeral services. This man was Charles C. Eranhall an acquaintance since childhood days.

Simplicity Marks Service.

The sun was shinning brilliantly when the funeral service began. From a muffled phonograph came the soft violin strains of Pinsuti's Rembrance. The Lord's Prayer was said and then slowly a reader spoke some lines written by Earl W. Williams and which Mr. Burroughs felt characteristic of himself.

Reverend Franklin D. Elmer, pastor of the Collegiate Baptist church at Colgate University likewise a long time friend, led the prayers and made a few remarks.

When he had finished the soft flute and voln notes of a cradle song spread over the room where men, women and children in sorrow filed by the bier for a last look at the face of Mr. Burroughs.

There were many floral offerings but they did not come from the artificial atmosphere of the city hot house. They were wild flowers gathered from the fields and hillsides. Tomorrow Mr. Burroughs' eighty fourth birthday his body will be taken by automobile into the Catskills and interred at the place where he was born, near the town of Roxbury.

AMERICAN RADICAL ARRESTED IN MEXICO

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, April 2.—Federal authorities last night arrested Linn E. Gale, an American radical who for more than three years has published a monthly magazine which of late has been sharply critical of the Obregon administration. According to semi-official information, Gale will be deported immediately.

From official sources it is learned that the United States war department has been advised of the Mexican action and there is a general belief that a request probably will be made for Gale's deportation to the United States where it is alleged he is charged with being an army deserter.

Gale was taken into custody while at work in his office and brought to a police station where he was held incommunicado. Inquiries at communist headquarters disclosed that his wife had accompanied him.

GOVERNOR HYDE APPOINTS JUDGES

Jefferson City, Mo., April 2.—Governor Hyde today appointed Harry Hamilton and Forest C. Bennell of St. Louis as circuit judges they to fill the two places created at the recent legislative session. Donnel is a law partner of Seldon Spencer, United States senator.

EVERETT HARDING IS ARRESTED BY POLICE ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Candy Store Owner Posed as a Relative of President Harding—Defrauded Railroad Out of $2,000—Promises Many Political Jobs—Borrowed Large Sums of Money

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 2.—Everett Harding, candy store owner arrested today on charges of impersonating a federal official tonight was declared by police to have defrauded the Pennsylvania Railroad out of nearly $2,000 and to have imposed on leading Chicago Clubs and business men by posing as a cousin of President, Harding, altho actually of no relation to the chief executive, and as his assistant secretary.

The police said they believed Harding had obtained at least $10,000 from business men by promising to use his influence in obtaining political appointments for them.

Harding, according to the police found Chicago's leading citizens gullible. He took twenty-two of them to the inauguration in a private car it was said and then paid the Pennsylvania with a check for the trip $1,913.44 which was returned, according to railroad official marked "no funds."

While on the trip Harding became acquainted with a delegation from the Hamilton, club, the chief Republican social organization of the city. He posed as a cousin of the president and was promised a life membership police said.

In return Harding was said to have promised his friends political appointments, telling them he was to be assistant secretary to the president. Harding, the police said after becoming acquainted with prominent business men thru posing as the president's cousin confidentially promised "to let them in" on several business ventures which he said would be backed by the chief executive.

One of these was a Harding hotel to be erected in the fashionable North Shore residence section, another was a chain of Harding candy stores, and a third was a monthly magazine which was to contain an article in each issue by the president.

Pearl Harding, Everett's 17 year old sister, acquired considerable fame thru the posing of her brother. She became known as the "White House baby", and it was said she was to go to Washington to live with the president. Her picture was widely sought by manufacturers to be used in advertising, she posed for scores of newspapermen, appeared in the movies and was feted in Chicago.

According to police Harding cashed in on his name by posing as Senator Harding's son during the national convention and passed several bad checks. He was held in bonds of $5,000 for hearing before United States Commissioner Mason.

ARREST COMMUNISTS IN ITALIAN PROVINCES

Genoa, April 2.—After searches by police along the Italian Rivera and the seizure of letters showing relations with Italian anarchists, about 100 Russian, Hungarian and Polish communists have been arrested. Large sums in gold were found in their possession. Further arests are believed to be imminent.

Angora, Asiatic Turkey, April 2.—Greek teachers in the American college at Marsivan about 110 miles northeast of Angora have been courtmartialed by Turkish Nationalists.

APPOINTMENT OF LORD TALBOT NOT WELL RECEIVED

Irish Press Comments in Most Unfavorable Terms

CONGRATULATE TALBOT ON COURAGE

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, April 2.—The Freeman's Journal, commenting today commenting on the appointment of Lord Edmund Bernard Talbot as lord lieutenant and governor general of Ireland as successor to Viscount French, says it is to be claimed as a recommendation that Lord Talbot is a Catholic. The newspaper added:

"But it is an insult to Irish intelligence to think that fact will insure a welcome from the Irish people to this rabid Tory partisan. For fifteen years the new viceroy has been the principal organizer of the anti-Irish forces in England."

The Freeman's Journal says it thinks the motive of the appointment of Lord Talbot was the desire of Prmier Lloyd George to keep the vatican in good humor but officials here declare a likelier explanation is that it was necessary to appoint a Catholic whose ploitical record would render him agreeable to Ulster.

The Irish Times congratulates Lord Talbot on his courage and says:

"Unless sanity and patiotism reform the entire situation during the present month Lord Edmund will have a thankless and ridiculous task in summoning a parliament which will never sit and another that will be disowned by the large majority of its electorate."

The Iris Independent says it welcomes the change because it believes it will involve also the departure of Sir Hamer Greenwood, chief secretary fo Ireland.

SHILOH VETS ARE GETTING SCARCE

St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—Sixty five veterans of the Battle of Shiloh, some clad in the blue of the north and some in the gray of the south, departed on the Steamer Kentucky Landing Tenn., where the annual exercises will be held on the battlefield April 6 and 7. The veterans were from all sections of the country and the majority are past 80 years of age.

Less than 100 of the 100,000 men who participated in the battle are still alive it was said.

COMMERCE COMMISSION CHANGES ITS ORDERS

Wasington, April 4.—Orders of the interstate commerce commission increasing state freight and passenger rates in New York and Iowa were changed today to permit the railroads to maintain the same rates within the state as are in effect in interstate traffic. In recent orders of the commission in state rates were so phrased as to suggest higher rates in some states than the interstate rates in effect in the same territory. Changes in the orders similarly affecting some thirty other states will be issued in the near future.

The effort to bring about the impeachment of the Governor of Oklahoma has thus far failed. Without extensive reasoning one cannot get at all the facts about the Oklahoma situation. But it is by no means a safe thing to say that a public official fully deserves all of the accusations made against him. Unfortunately the habit of charging men who hold public office with unlawful acts—to say nothing of impugning their motives—has become almost a national pastime.

There is no telling what the referendum will show, but certainly a study of general business conditions should lead Chicago skilled workmen to express their willingness to accept a wage cut. It is shown that such an action will release contracts for $100,0000,000 worth work and almost immediately give employment to 35,000 men now idle. Think of what it would mean to Chicago and a far wider area to have $200,000 or $300,000 a day more expended for wages thru a long period of years. That's what the letting of such huge contracts would mean.

Secretary Weeks of the war department has ordered about $2,000,000 worth of aircraft for the deeviopment of this part of army service. Jacksonville people have taken air rides in recent days and others who have watched the aeroplane circling over the city have a keener apreciation than before of the possibilities of air travel, and what the development of aviation means in its relation to the military preparedness of the U. S.

Very little interest has thus far been shown in the coming city election, which is to be held Tuesday, April 19. That fact does not mean that the people of Jacksonville are unconcerned about city affairs, but does mean that they are satisfied with he assurance given in the primary results that the city will have during the coming two years an administration of its affairs which will constantly make the interests of the people paramount.

A great coal strike is in effect in England. This will be joyous news to the coal operators of the U. S., whose mines are now operating on less than half time. Any continuance of the English strike will mean the opportunity for export and so the speeding up of U. S. mining operations.

The Congregaional church is presumably trying out an experiment in the community meeting announced for tonight. Certainly the subjects of public health, recreation and education, which have been chosen for a series of Sunday community discussions, are very closely related to the welfare of the people. So they have a certain connection with religious life. The field of the church influence is widening.

There will not be a general burst of enthusiasm over the appointment of Col. Harvey as ambassador to Great Britain. Col. Harvey is a brilliant editor and writer, but his writings do not indicate the rational poise and balance which are ordinarily accounted among the qualifications of those entrusted with public duties of great importance.

The assessors are busy these days all thruout the county, listing property in accordance with legal requirements. People are not usually happy about anything relating to taxation, but in the present instance they should find some pleasure in remembering that the personal property they list this year will have nothing like the valuation of a year ago. This fact will more than off set any increase in the tax rate.

Some people who are urging the construction of Illinois roads regardless of expense are pointing to the fact that extensive contracts for road building are now being let in Indiana. In considering these facts it should be borne in mind that this matter of road construction thru the center of Illinois, with its deep black soil, is a far different matter from building roads along the roadways in Indiana, where sand and gravel abound in such quantities.

THE TURNOVER TAX PROPOSAL

On the whole, the Dry Goods Economist is inclined to favor the proposed turnover form of tax, rather than the sales tax, meaning by the latter terms the tax on retail sales only. We feel it would be less difficult to induce congress to enact a turnover tax because a cry is quite likely to be raised that the sales tax, levied on retail sales only, places an unfair burden on the poor man. Many people do not see that the turnover tax would be passed on in any case, and such people would take pleasure in the thought that part of the tax was paid by the manufacturer, etc.

For a somewhat similar reason we do not favor the plan which is agitated in some quarters for the raising of the great bulk of the revenue—or even all of it, apart from that obtained on duties on imports—by means of a sales tax or a turnover tax, according as the case might require. Such a plan ignores the fact that the poor man pays out for the necessities of life a far greater proportion of his income than does the man of wealth or even of moderate means. Any injustice of this character can readily be prevented by the levying of income taxes on people's incomes above a certain amount, as is done at the present time.

The Economist, therefore, favors a turnover tax, together with income taxes graded according to the amount of income. We also favor income tax rates that are higher on incomes obtained without work or effort and lower rates on incomes derived from the earnings, salaries or professional fees obtained by the individual taxpayer.

The foregoing is an all too brief and cursory statement, in view of the importance and the ramifications of the subject discussed. As said, however, much light has already been cast in our columns. Furthermore, we purpose to continue to discuss the proposition in its various aspects, presenting, of course, such new developments as may arise.—Dry Goods Economist.

PROMMINENT WOMAN TO SPEAK HERE THIS MONTH

Miss Jeanette Rankin, Montana Congress-Woman, to Address Citizen School — Other Prominent Speakers to Appear.

Miss Jeanette Rankin, Montana congress-woman of national fame will be one of the speakers at the Citizenship school, which is to be held in Jacksonville April 19, 20, 21, 22, under the auspices of the Civics department of the Woman's club. Miss Rankin will speak at two sessions, on the "Minimum Wage" and on "Legislation for Women." This school which is for the enlightenment of the women of this community on all citizenship subjects.

Mrs. George Sikes of Chicago was secured for this school by Mrs. Henry W. Cheney, president of the Illinois League of Woman Voters. Mrs. Sikes comes very finely recommended as she has a fund of definite information along the line of citizenship schools. A great many people will recognize her through the record of her husband, who has been closely associated with the Bureau of Public Efficiency in the state for a long time.

Miss Anne Hinrichsen of Springfield, will have charge of the civil service and social welfare subjects on the program, making a number of addresses. Miss Hinrichsen is an authority on such topics from much experience and study.

Judge Norman L. Jones of this district will give the talks on jurisdiction of the courts. Everyone knows of Judge Jones.

Earl B. Searcy, state representative from this district will also appear on the program of the school. Besides all these speakers of national and state interest a number of our best known local speakers have taken charge of various local topics, about which they naturally know the most.

One of the features of the meetings is to be a question-box conducted by Mrs. Sikes, in which anyone can put the questions which are not clear and have the explanation.

This four-day school will be held in the circuit court room of the court house. The full symposium will be announced later. Mrs. John Cleary is the chairman of the eways and means committee and holds the tickets for sale. Anyone can get more information from anyone of the Civics committee.

The program was arranged and plans discussed at the meeting of this committee held Thursday in the Ayers bank. The members of the committee, which has Mrs. W. S. Jones as chairman, are Mrs. Byron Armstrong, Mrs. J. W. Arnold, Mrs. John W. Cleary, Mrs. J. N. Conover, Mrs. A. H. Dollear, Mrs. J. F. Green, Mrs. T. J. Duffner, Mrs. Harrison King, Mrs. Homer Potter, Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Mrs. Eb Spink and Mrs. Sidney P. Jones.

WINCHESTER S. S. CLASS ENTERTAINED

Miss Ethel McClure's Sunday School Scholars Enjoy Pleasant Afternoon at Church—Other Winchester News.

Winchester, April 2.—Miss Ethel McClure entertained the members of her Sunday school class Saturday afternoon in the parlors of the church. A large number of little folks were present and enjoyed games and amusements of various kinds during the afternoon. Refreshments were served before the little guests departed for their homes.

Mr and Mrs. Guy Clark and son Fred have returned from a pleasant visit at Pasadena and other points in California.

Floyd Wallace arrived home Friday night from Alton for a short visit with his parents. This is the young man's first visit home since the holidays.

A runaway horse caused some little excitement on the south side of the square and Main street Saturday afternoon. The animal became frightened and carried the post away with it. No great damage resulted.

Mrs. Thomas Williams of Pekin and Mrs. Samuel Hunt of Jacksonville were here Friday to attend the funeral of Ray Taylor.

VOTE AGAINST USE OF CAPS AND GOWNS

The seniors of the high school will not wear caps and gowns at the graduating exercises this year. This matter was decided at a class meeting recently by a vote of 34 to 22. It is said that a great many high school students have adopted caps and gowns for commencement day, but the various objections raised here to the plan appealed to the majority of the class.

THE BIG LAUGH BILL

Samuel Goldwyn and Rex Beach Present

RUPERT HUGHES

Famous Story

SCRATCH MY BACK

Featuring

Helen Chadwick and T. Roy Barnes

Val Rommey found himself in a ticklish situation. The most embarrassing moment you ever had in your life was nothing compared to this one. It's the funniest picture shown in months. Thelaughing hit of the year. Rupert Hughes' most scintillant work for the screen. Something new in pictures. Smartest comedy that travels "on high" from the first flicker to the last amazing climax.

Seven reels packed with rib-tickling comedy. The startling story of a man who always did as he pleased.

I want to put my personal endorsement upon a picture which I consider to be one of the most delightful comedies ever created. In all my long experience as an exhibitor of photoplays, I have never seen a picture quite like this one—so gay, so fresh, so clever, and so down-right funny! And it is as different as it sounds. Rupert Hughes wrote it down to the last title. It is clean comedy. There isn't a bedroom or a suggestive phrase in any of the seven reels—it's packed too solidly with genuine rib-tickling wit for that.

ADDED ATTRACTION

BUSTER KEATON in THE HAUNTED HOUSE

Whoopee! Say Folks! You will have the time of your life. If you are a grouch see this comedy because it sure will take the grouch out of you and you will be glad that you are alive.

The Greatest of All Society Dramas

"BLIND WIVES"

A photodrama of surpassing loveliness, made from Edward Knoblock's great New York, London and Paris Stage Success, "My Lady's Dress."

Greatest Showing of Beautiful Gowns Ever Seen at One Time

STIRRING MOMENTS OF THIS GREAT PLAY

When Anne's husband stops his wife's charge account at the dressmaker's.

When Anne declares she hasn't a "thing to wear" and the maid shows her dozens of gowns.

When Anne selects a gorgeous new gown and is told she cannot have it because her account has been stopped.

When a wealthy man slyly offers to pay Anne's bill for the gown.

When Anne's husband learns his wife has bought the gown against his orders and inquires, "Who paid for it?"

When Anne's husband calls his wife a mannikin, and charges that clothes are her ruling passion—stronger than the cravings of a drunkard or a dope fiend.

When the joys, the loves, the tragedies that go to make up my lady's dress are shown in rapid succession.

When Anita's employer refuses to heed a 'phone message that her mother is dying.

When a greedy shopkeeper is killed because he tries to keep a girl model from her mother's deathbed, in his desire to get "more business."

When Anita spurns the insult of a wealthy man, who gambles on her desire to hold her job.

When Anne reaches the decision that her dress is not worth all the misery its production causes throughout the world.

When Anne puts her arms around her husband and declares her happiness lies with him and not in showing herself gorgeously arrayed before the world, while he is overworking to meet her extravagance.

SOCIAL WORKERS MET AT LA SALLE

Secretaries of Organizations Thruout the State Were Present—Many Subjects of Interest Discussed.

The spring conference of the social workers of Illinois met in LaSalle last Wednesday and Thursday. Secretaries of a number of organizations over the state were present. Springfield, Jacksonville, Rock Island, Champaign and Evanston were among the cities represented. The social workers of Chicago are not included in these conferences, which are held for the purpose of discussing the problems of the smaller cities.

The Wednesday morning session was given over to the discussion of "How to care for the transient or homeless man." The subject of the afternoon session was "Co-operation." A number of prominent business men of LaSalle, Peru and Oglesby gave five minute addresses. All of these men spoke of the splendid spirit of co-operation that exists in the Tri-Cities in dealing with civic matters and social problems. This is due, they said, to the efforts put forth by the Tri-City Associated Charities.

Miss Dupieu, registrar of the Social Service Exchange of Chicago, spoke of the advantages of a confidential exchange in preventing duplication and over-lapping of the work of the various agencies including churches, lodges, clubs, Red Cross and public and private welfare organizations. Another interesting speaker was Dr. E. W. Weis, Director of Hygienic Institutes which serves as a department of Public Health and Nursing for the Tri-Cities. Dr. Weis told of the work of the Institute in conducting dental, tuberculosis, eye, ear, nose and throat clinics and also an Infant Welfare Department.

The Thursday moring session took up the problem of unemployment, mehtods of securing sanitary housing conditions and a discussion of the housing bill now before the state legislature, occupyied the afternoon meeting. Visits to the Hygenic Institute and the recreation center were greatly enjoyed by the delegates. Tri-Cities, LaSalle, Peru and Oglesby, are fortunate in possessing a fine recreation center, which provides club rooms for boys and girls as well as adults, a gymnasium, swimming pool, library and assembly hall for the free use of the public.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

J. T. Smith has returned to his work at Capps Mills, after a prolonged illness of five months. Mr. Smith met with a severe accident the last week in October, falling from a ladder while painting the gutters of his home, 1007 North Fayette street. His right heel was crushed and the ligaments of his leg bruised and torn.

Mr. Smith wishes to thank all who have been so kind during the weeks of his confinement. Especially would he remember the employes, who sent him a splendid Christmas gift. To the neighbors and friends for their frequent automobile rides, and to all who remembered him by their visits and gifts, he extends his heartfelt thanks. Mrs. Smith joins her husband in this expression of gratitude.

FRANKLIN MUSICAL CLUB MET SATURDAY

Business Session of Newly Formed Organization Held Saturday Afternoon at Home of Mrs. W. C. Calhoun.

Franklin, April 2.—There was a full attendance at the meeting of the recently organized musical club, held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Calhoun here. It was strictly a business session and the name chosen for the organization is the Franklin Musical club. The constitution was adopted and it was decided that a meeting shall be held the fourth Saturday in each month.

The membership is to be limited to 35 active and 10 associate members. The study program will include art and expression as well as music and there is every indication that the new club will be a prominent factor in community life in days to come. There are thirty charter members.

The next meeting will be held on Saturdry, April 30, at the home of Miss Dorothea Sargent, when the initial program will be presented.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R. EMPLOYES REJECT COMPANY PROPOSAL

Refuse to Submit to Cut from 15 to 25 Per Cent

WILL SUBMIT CASE TO RAILROAD LABOR BOARD

(By The Associated Press)

PITTSBURGH, April 2.—Proposals of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that 1,750 signal men of the road accept wage reductions of from 15 to 25 per cent were rejected by representatives of the employes late today.

Officials of the Brotherhood of Railway Signalmen received the companys plan for wage cuts today from the general managers' committee which is representing the road at the series of wage conferences here. The managers contended that the wage scale set by the United States railroad labor board in Decision No 2, was not just and reasonable at this time.

The employer' representatives held an executive session after the conference with the managers, at the termination of which they notified the officials that the proposed wage reduction was not acceptable to the men. The managers then asked if the employers would consider any other proposals for a cut and the brotherhood officials answered in the negative.

A futile effort to reach an agreement was made by the executives when they suggested that the signal men allow the company to deduct from wages beginning April 20 that amount of the proposed reductions and that in event the railroad board decided against the cuts the company would refund the amounts taken out. This proposal was rejected. The conference closed after representatives of both sides had voted to submit the case to the railroad labor board.

RED CROSS TO DO RELIEF WORK IN IRELAND

Washington, April 2.—Out of funds held in reserve for the relief of conditions of unusual distress, the American Red Cross will contribute $100,000 to the American committee for relief in Ireland, it was announced at National headquarters tonight.

Following conference between representatives of the committee and national officers of the Red Cross, it was agreed that in accordance with Red Cross policy, the Red Cross contribution should be made in lump sum from National funds. The Irish committee will not solicit nor accept contributions from chapters.

Contributions to the Irish Relief Fund, of which this $100,000 is a part, are being disbursed in Ireland with the consent of the British government.

"The urgent appeal by responsible American citizens indicates that there now exists in Ireland conditions of unusual distress, particularly among women and children, who must inevitably be affected by the present situation," said W. Frank Persons, acting chairman of the Central Committee. "Accordingly, the American Red Cross makes this gift in conformity with its traditional policy of alleviating emergency needs."

SWISS DO NOT WANT EMPEROR CHARLES

Berne, Switzerland, April 2.—The Swiss federal council will inform former Emperor Charles on his arrival here that he cannot emain in Prangins, as the Canto in which Prangins is located does not desire his presence. He must choose a residence away from the frontier and not in a city.

The federal council will decide whether the temporary permission granted Charles to remain in Switzerland shall be made permanent and under what conditions.

FOUND GUILTY OF SECOND DEGREE MURDER

Sioux City, Iowa, April 2.—Charles F. Christisen, charged with killing his wife, Ethel Christisen, was found guilty of second degree murder by a jury today. Christisen shot his wife at the home of her parents, January 15 last. There were two women on the jury.

GOVERNOR KENDALL VETOES SPRINGER BILL

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 2.—Gov. N. E. Kendall this afternoon vetoed the Springer public utility bill, over which the hottest battle of the session has been waged. He sent it back to the house with a message voicing a number of serious objections to the measure.

The governor centered his objections upon the clause of the bill which grants indeterminate franchises to the public utilities of the state.

"In my judgment," he said, "section nine of the bill violates a fundamental principle of our law and is a complete reversal of the policy of the state in dealing with the public utilities. It deprives the people and their representatives on the city councils and boards of supervisors of every vestige of power to protect the interest of the public on its streets and highways, for it, in effect, confers upon the utilities now established in numerous cities and towns a perpetual rights to enjoy the benefits and privileges secured to them under contract franchises granted by a vote of the people for definite terms."

JAPAN HAS TRIED TO GET U. S. INTO THE CHINESE CONSORTIUM

Welcomed Proposal of 1919 for Four Power Agreement

ONLY DESIRE TO INSURE NATIONAL DEFENSE

(By The Associated Press)

TOKIO, April .—The Japanese government in publishing today the correspondence relating to the international consortium for financing China, attached a statement that Japan had always tried to secure the return of the American group to the negotiations and therefore welcomed the American proposal of 1919 for the formation of a four-power consortium comprising Great Britain, France, the United States and Japan.

With reference to Japan's reservations regarding the exclusion of Manchuria and Mongolia from the scope of the consortium the government statement says it regrets to hear discussions based on misunderstandings of the Japanese proposals, the object of which were merely to secure anew a definite understanding of Japan's special and legitimate claims.

The reservations were not actuated by any desire to exclude completely the activities of other powers in the two countries the statement asserts Japan only desiring to insure her national defense and the security of her economic life.

ALSCHULER AGAIN TAKES UP STOCK YARDS DISPUTE

Arbitrates Troubles of Independent Packing Employes

OFFICIALS PROMISE TO PUT MEN TO WORK

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 2.—Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler today resumed arbitration of disputes between the stock yards packers and their employes, effecting a settlement of strike of 1,300 employes of the Independent and William Davies Packing companies.

The conference at which the strike settlement was made was the first at which Judge Alschuler has presided as arbitrator since the big five packers abrogated the Alschuler war-time arbitration agreement and later at the Washington conference, held by Secretary Davies agreed to a six months' extension of the agreement.

Officials of the strikers' union who ordered the men out because of alleged violation by the packers of the seniority and wage clauses of the Alschuler agreement, said they would order the men to return to work Monday. The seniority rights of those who walked out will be taken up by the arbitrator next week.

OASES ARE DRYING UP

New York, April 2.—Old time oases along New York's famous "Gay White Way" are gradually drying up under prohibition, but on the swarming East Side, saloons are still flourishing.

A survey by the anti-Saloon League made public today set forth only 23 per cent of the old saloons in the Broadway district now were open for business. Along 12 miles of the famous thorofare—the old "cocktail trail"—only 41 places are alleged still to be ministering to the thirsty.

But on the East Side 70 per cent of the old saloons are said to be "still be doing business at the same old stand."

HELP IN NEAR EAST RELIEF WORK

WASHINGTON, April 2.—President Harding today saved the life of an Armenian child by accepting a Near East Relief coupon book, representing sufficient funds to provide food and clothing for one child for a year.

Mrs. Harding also accepted a book.

The president and Mrs. Harding received the books standing on the east portico of the White House, on which was spread a rug used in the Hall of Mirrors at the signing of the treaty of Versailles, at the ceremonies attending Mr. Harding's inauguration last month and across which the first California troops marched in boarding a transport for France.

MISSOURI'S VALUATION NEARLY FIVE BILLIONS

Jefferson City, Mo., April 2.—The total and final valuation of real estate and personal property in Missouri for this year's taxes is $4,467,451,852, as announced late today by the state board of equalization. This valuation does not include railroads and other public service corporations, the board announced. The amount announced today is $1,985,705,816 over the tax valuation for 1920, the announcement said. The tax commission recommended a total valuation of these properties of $4,860,199,253, but this amount was lowered by the board.

St. Louis city is given a valuation of $1,001,530,949.

ST. LOUIS SCHOOLS WILL OFFER SCHOLARSHIPS

St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—Six scholarships from the two local universities will be awarded to residents of five cities in Mexico a delegation of leading St. Louis business men who will leave on an official trip to Mexico City Tuesday in an effort to establish closer business relations between this city and Mexico, it was announced this evening by the committee in charge of the journey.

LOUIS F. POST TAKES UP HIS DUTIES

Washington, April 2.—Legal and executive work of the immigration bureau taken over by Louis F. Post, as assistant secretary of labor was re-transferred to the bureau today by Assistant Secretary Henning. Mr. Henning said his office had become so swamped with a mass of routine matters pertaining to appeals of immigrants refused permission to land that larger matters of the department within his jurisdiction were suffering.

GREENE COUNTY SEEKS STATE HARD ROAD

Roodhouse and White Hall Make Effort to Secure Construction of Sample Stretch of Hard Road — Bible Class Benquets —Other News.

White Hall, April 2.—Roodhouse and White Hall are combining forces in an effort to secure the construction of a sample state hard road between these points at an early date. The move was fostered by officers of the Mississippi Valley Highway association, who held a meeting in Roodhouse Thursday evening in connection with the Roodhouse Service club, at which the highway officers from White Hall weer invited to participate. The White Hall delegation consisted of Guy Lowenstein, A. E. Hudson, Peter Roodhouse, Joseph Lyman, Mayor F. N. McLaren, W. W. Evans, J. H. Fox. A banquet was served in the basement of the M. E. church, and the proceedings were conducive to a working understanding of the joint interests of the two leading cities of northern Greene county, which were so closely situated. It was decideded to further consider the subject at Carrollton on Friday, and President George B. Morow and Secretary C. G. Hamm were named to represent Roodhouse, and President Guy Lowenstein and Secretary Joseph Lyman were named to represent White Hall. The conference took place in the general offices of the Mississippi Valley Highway association in Carrollton, and a general workng understanding was evolved, in which Carrollton will have a hand in the affair with the view of having the sample road construction carried thru the county. C. A. Ruckel and Louis Lowenstein were also present from White Hall.

A new angle to the paving proposition at White Hall has developed with a request to Representative O. C. Sonnemann from two citizens concerned, Dr. A. W. Foreman and Rev. J. O. Raines. It is declared that cities under 2,500 population will be given the state hard road thru the municipal corporations, and Carrollton's census figures were kept under the 2,500 mark, which will exempt that city from the necessity of paving. With White Hall and Roodhouse it is necessary for the municipalities to provide the paving thru the corporate limits of each city or leave a stretch of dirt road along the state hard road that would be unsightly in comparison. White Hall and Roodhouse have populations about equal, both being slightly under 3,000, and it is racking the nerves of citizens of both places to realize that Carrollton is to get its hard road thru that city at state expense. To meet the situation Representative Sonnemann is requested to submit legislation exempting cities under 5,000 population instead of 2,500. It is understood that such a bill has already been presented to the general assembly, and communication to Mr. Sonneman will disclose the actual situation, it is believed.

Church Services

Only the regular routine of services are announced for the various churches Sunday. At the Chistian church theer will be no preaching, Rev. Lucas having left Thursday for his new pastoral field at Lawrenceville. Rev. Hanchett states that he has had a very busy week outside his study, and that there will be special announcement for the Presbyterians church a week later. The First Baptist will have some special musical features as usual. At the Methodist Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick will deliver an after-Easter sermon, "Risen With Christ," and at night the Easter cantata of last Sunday will be repeated. Rev. Kirkpatrick states that 27 were received by baptism last Sunday, making 51 additions to the church membership since the last Sunday in September.

Friday evening Rev. Hanchett banqueted his Bible class at the activities in connection with the Stocks, and at that time future Presbyterian Sunday school were considered. This is coming to be a very important body of young Bible students.

CONDITION OF CEREAL CROPS IS FAVORABLE

This is the Report of Abricultural Board Made Saturday

ITALIAN CROPS MAKING NORMAL PROGRESS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The condition of cereal crops in the Northern Hemisphere was described as "generally favorable" by the department of agriculture's bureau of crops today in a summary of foreign crop prospects. Mild winter weather in almost all the reporting countries was held to have an important factor in the crop situation.

Due to mild weather seeding was reported to have started in the Canadian provinces of Saskatchwan and Alberta a month earlier than usual. Winter rains improved the autumn sown cereals in France while climatic conditions have been generally favorable for spring work in the fields. Spring cultivation was reported as further advanced than usual in the United Kingdom and the wheat of which the area sown was slightly greater this year is a strong healthy plant.

The Italian crops were reported as making normal progress and the wheat area in Roumania was estimated at 5.3 per cent over last year.

From the southern hemisphere Argentine reported a continuation of favorable climatic conditions altho rains toward the end of the harvest may result in some damage. Excessive rains were reported from Australia but the latest figures indicated the output of wheat would reach 147,000,000 bushels.

KRUPPS PLANTS RESUME OPERATIONS

COBLANZ, April 2.—Workers in the Krupp plants in the Reinhausen, Moers and Crefeld districts, in the Belgian occupational zone resumed work this morning under supervision of the Belgian troops which put down the recent uprisings. The miners also returned to work. Forty three communist leaders arrested will be court martialed on charges ranging from simple misdemeanors to attempts at open rebellion and some of trials may involve the death penalty.

The Belgians since have arrested more than 500 communists. Order has been re-established.

THOUSANDS GATHER TO GREET FAMOUS GERMAN SCIENTIST

Prof. Albert Einstein Arrives in This Country Saturday

SOLICIT SUPPORT FOR ZIONIST MOVEMENT

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 2.—Several thousand persons gathered on the pier today to greet Prof. Albert Einstein, noted German scientist and originator of the Einstein theory of relativity, who landed as a member of the party of distinguished Jews. The delegation has come to enlist the support of elements of Jewry for the World Zionist organization and appeal for help for a Hebrew university to be established on the Mount of Olives.

Professor Einstein and party were escorted to the pier by a special committee representing Mayor Hylan, which went down the bay in a revenue cutter and met the steamship Rotterdam, on which they arrived from Plymouth. The scientist cordially greeted newspapermen, but as he did not talk English, he gave no interviews.

Asked about the Einstein theory, Mrs. Einstein, who spoke some English, said:

"He has told me the theory a great many times, but it is all dim to me now."

WOMEN'S STYLES FOR MANY YEARS SHOWN

Paid More Attention to Style Than to Material—Fashions for Last 1600 Years Displayed

Pittsfield, Mass.—(By The A. P.) —Fashions in woman's wear for the last 1600 years, from the abundant robes of the Rmoan patrician to the abbreviated skirts of today, are represented on 185 dolls dressed by Mrs. Charles S. Wright of this city. Work was begun on the unique collection of mannekins more than six years ago, after months of study of autheticated prints portraying styles of different periods. It is said to be one of the best of its kind in the world.

In a specially furnished room madames of the dark ages, contemplate belles of the Rennaissance and sprightly debutates of our ante bellum and modern days. Eve also has a place in the fashion review, but merely as an example of how clothes make the woman.

One of the most interesting costumes is that of a fisherwoman from the Firth of Forth. Tailored suits and peek-a-boo waists have had no effect on the lusty Scots who live on that arm of the sea, for their dress standard has remained unchanged for 500 years.

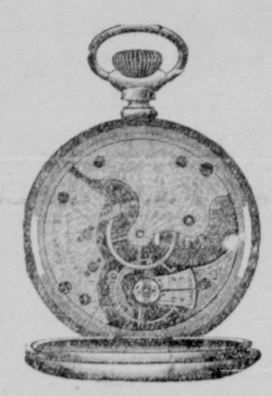

Shifts in American Styles

Shifts in American styles are illustrated by eight waxen faced beauties starting with the street gown of 1850. In this display are an afternoon frock of 1857, a calling costume of 1869, ball gowns of 1860 and spring wear of 1869. The opera goer of 1910 stands haughtily erect in the extremely tight skirt of that year.

Leaders in dazzling costumes are the Japanese from time of their introduction to the Western world. Slant eyed, brown faced dolls present a complete picture of feminine Nippon's armor of conquest in rich silks and satins. A large group of Chinese mannequins, arrayed in heavy silk fabric, peep from beneath coquettish Oriental sunshades.

Hats have received particular attention in the collection. There are horned headgear popular in the year 1200, the monster mitre hats and the sugarloaf hoods with clusters of hair, dressed high against the supporting heart shaped device.

In analysing the various styles, Mrs. Wright who is an author and the wife of the district attorney of Berkshire and Hampden counties, says women of all ages apparently cared less for the material and more for the cut the world over.

A GOOD BANK IN A GOOD TOWN Jacksonville, Ill.

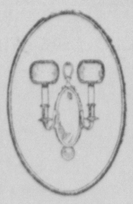

Alger Was Wrong!

Horatio Alger, the well-known author of boys books, always depicted bank officials as gentlemen who went around with mutton-chop whiskers and a benevolent smile, turning helpless widows and struggling orphans out of their homes. He was very much mistaken.

Bank officials of this day and age are very human folks. They greet you with a smile and a hand-shake, and always have a nod for you when they meet you on the street. You see, their success depends on good will just as much as does the grocers. We think officials here at the Farrell State Bank are a little more cordial than the average, even. We'd like to have you meet them!

STATES ATTORNEY REFUSES TO COMMENT

Robert E. Crowe Will Not Talk About Arrest of Nato Evens in St. Louis—Others Say Name Was Never Mentioned in Cases.

Chicago, April 2.—Officials of the state's attorney's office today refused to comment on the arrest in St. Louis last night of Nato Evens, alleged New York gambler who is believed to have inside knowledge of the 1919 world series baseball scandal. Evens, Herman Cohen and Elias Fink were arrested on charges of being fugitives from justice and it was believed Chicago officials had requested that they be taken into custody.

Evens' name has never been publicly connected with the baseball scandal in any official statement from the state's attorney and today no official would say whether the St. Louis police had been requested to take him into custody. High officials connected with the first investigation of the alleged throwing of the 1919 world series said they had no recollection that any testimony implicating Evens in a conspiracy was given at that hearing. They expressed the opinion that Evens might be wanted by the state as a witness.

Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney frequently has said that there has "been certain witnesses" wanted by the state to complete its case. Whether Evens was one of these Mr. Crowe refused to say.

"If Evens is wanted in the baseball case it is either as a state witness or because of some testimony given at the second grand jury investigation which was not given at the first probe," an official of the first investigation said tonight. Mr. Crowe also refused to say whether Evens' name had been brought into the second investigation which recently indicted 18 men in connection with the scandal.

WILL ERECT STANDS FOR DAVIS CUP PLAY

New York, April 2.—Various recommendations connected with the Davis Cup and National Championship play for the coming season were considered today at the annual spring meeting of executive committee of the United States Lawn Tennis association. It was decided to erect grandstands capable of seating from 14,000 to 16,000 spectators for the Davis cup challenge round to be played at Forest Hills, N. Y., September 2, 3 and 5. This will be the largest tennis arena ever built.

The committee adopted a resolution favoring repeal of the government tax of ten per cent collected upon tennis and other sporting goods as being detrimental to the development of amateur pastimes and recreations.

UNIVERSAL MAN SUFFRAGE REJECTED BY JAPAN

Tokio—(By A. P.)—Rejection of universal suffrage by the Japanese Diet has been followed by a meeting of the Buddhist priests of Japan to protest their exclusion from the vote. They objected vigorously when a government member of the Diet told them it was a great mistake to meddle with politics.

Tucking up their robes, some of the priests rushed to the platform demanding the expulsion of the speaker. Representative Matsuoka. In reporting the incident several Japanese newspapers declared that Mr. Matsuoka was not only dragged from the rostrum but was "beaten up" as well.

The 120,000 priests of Japan are awakening politically and the nation should listen to their cry for political freedom, Naoliko Seki, a member of the Kokumin-to opopsition in the Diet, declared.

The meeting adopted resolutions that the priests desired to fulfill their responsibility as teachers of the people and actively to serve society but that to accomplish their work in life the offensive election law should be amended to give the right of voting.

OAK PARK CAPTURES INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 2—Oak Park High School of Chicago won the Interscholastic track meet at Northwestern University tonight, scoring 27 2-5 points. Deerfield (Chicago) was second with 20 points and Detroit third with nine.

Other schools scoring included University High (Chicago) 7 7-0; LaGrance, Ill., 6; Aurora and Elmwood, Ill., and Kansas City, Mo., 5 each; Battle Creek and Kalamazoo, Michigan, 4 each and Urbana, Ill., four.

Three interscholastic records were broken and in the fifty yard dash Harney of Oak Park set an initial record of :05 4-5; this being the first time the fifty yard has been placed in the events.

Graham of University High broke the 440 yard run record of :54 2-5, turning in a mark of :52 1-5. Moulder of Kansas City set a new record of 2:05 4-5 in 880 yard run. The old mark was 2:06 4-5.

Oak Park's relay team set a record in running the mile going the distance in 3:42 3-5.

McElwain of Deerfield was the individual point winner with thirteen.

EDDIE HUSE IS IN CLANCY'S CAMP

Former Resident Has Pacific Coast Battler—Says He Is a Regular Fighting Man.

James Clancy of Springfield, a former resident of this city, has taken Eddie Huse, a Pacific coast welter weight under his wing and will look after the business end of his battles.

Jimmy in a letter to the Journal praises Huse highly. He says Huse is a fighting man pure and simple and has come to the middle west to fight. That is his business and he is anxious to take on any of the welter weights in this neck of the woods.

Huse has gained the sobriquent of Fighting Eddie Huse. Clancy says that he is one of those willing battlers who sails and is willing to take a punch in order to give one. When he is in the ring, says Jimmy, there is always action and the air is full of gloves.

Huse claims the welter title of the Pacific coast and is anxious to show his wares before a Jacksonville audience. If there is a fighter of his heft around here who wants any of Huse's game he can get lots of action by addressing James Clancy, 613 East Adams street, Springfield

MARRIED IN PRETTY HOME CEREMONY

(Wayne, Neb., Herald.)

The marriage of Miss Ella King Morrison and Mr. Paul L. Harrington, bith of Wayne, was performed by Rev. J. W. Beard of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. W. Jones. Mr. Harrington and bride will be at home in Wayne after a short trip.

Pink and white, the bride's colors, were carried out in the decorations. The fire place, bankel with green, formed an altar, against which were seven Easter lilies. Pink snap-dragons added to the attractiveness of the reception room and Ophelia roses in the dining room. Miss Marjorie Selleck and Miss Frances McNabb of Lincoln, Miss Faith Haskell of Wakefield and Miss Grace Bennett of Winona, Minn., stretched white ribbons from the stairs to the altar, while Miss Mariel Jones of Lincoln played selections on the piano. To Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party descended the stairs. Little Louise Morrison of Kansas City, dressed in ruffled blue organdie, carried the ring in a bouquet made of a calla-lily and sweet peas. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, W. K. Smith, of Wayne. The bride's gown was of white hand-embroidered voile trimmed in filet lace. Her skirt-length veil was of Brussels net edged with Duchess lace. Ward roses and lilies of the valley made up her bouquet. D. H. Cunningham attended Mr. Harrington as best man. Rev. Mr. Beard read the service.

A two-course supper, carrying the bride's colors, was served after the ceremony. Sixty guests were present.

The bride's home was in Lincoln until about five years ago, when she came to Wayne. She attended the University of Nebraska and was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She was active in Red Cross work, and in August, 1918, went to France in canteen service, where she won the friendship and admiration of the many people she met. She is held in high esteem by her large circle of friends.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington, of Wayne. He attended the University of Nebraska and was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was in service in the late war, being stationed at Camp Pike, and received the commission of first lieutenant before the armistice was signed. He had been a member of the Philleo & Harrington Lumber company until the firm sold out recently. He is a popular young man and merits the regard of his many friends.

Best wishes of all their acquaintances are extended the bride and bridegroom.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Victor Jeep, Mr. and Mrs. Russel and Mrs. Otto Wiese, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Morrison and daughter, Louise, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. George O. Smith, Jr., Miss Mariel Jones, Miss Marjorie Selleck, Miss Frances McNabb, and Miss Mary Spauding, Lincoln; Miss Grace Bennett, Winona, Minn., and Miss Faith Haskell, Wakefield; Mr. and Mrs. Ensley Moore, Jacksonville, Ill.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY

Would anyone unfamiliar with the work of a humane society believe that in this country of ours there could live any one cruel enough to starve a poor, dumb animal to death? Heartless as this may seem, it is nevertheless the case. Our officers, with a veterinary surgeon, went into the country to see about a case reported to us, and were horrified to find on a certain farm of some six hundred acres, more than a dozen young horses had actually starved. They had been turned into a field last fall, with only the most impossible food obtainable, with the cruel result that these good young horses had slowly starved to death and a local concern had gone out after their dead carcasses from time to time, finally reporting the case to the Morgan County Humane society.

We do not give this man's name for he came to town and paid a heavy fine, and now has a veterinarian looking after the rest of his stock in the hope of saving the rest of them, tho they all show the lack of care and proper feeding.

The people generally do not know what we as a society are doduce people to be kind to all dumb animals. We have had many cases of cruelty and poor feeding, but this last one is by far the worst, and the money paid in the fine imposed would have bought food enough to have saved every one of these good young horses, and had they been in good condition they would have sold for $1,200.

The pepole generally do not know hat we as a society are doing, as it is very difficult to have a public meeting. But we are gaining in membership each year and now have quite a good balance in the bank. We expect very soon to purchase a small car, in order that our officer may get out into the country, for as the spring work begins there come reports of almost unbelievable cruelty to the faithful animals, who serve their masters so well in putting in the crops of the country. There are frequent reports of the use of wire bits and wire whips and of insufficient watering and feeding at noon.

There was a report of one man who used his team for plowing all day and at night turned them into a pasture to get what food and water they could find. We would so much rather have these animals fed and cared for than to have the money for fines, but this is the only course to follow when such conditions are found.

We have an experienced, kind-hearted horseman as our officer, one who can tell from the appearance of a horse whether or not he is being treated as he should be. All cases of cruelty or neglect should be reported to the officer, Ilinois Phone 577, and he will give them prompt attention.

The next meeting will be held on April 9, at the home of Mrs. Henry Hail, 604 West College avenue, at 7:30 o'clock. Friends of the society are cordially invited to attend.

John M. Reid, Officer.

GREAT PICTURE COMING TO SCOTTS

"Scratch My Back," at Scott's theater, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Did you ever feel that terrible sensation of having an itchy spot on your back just out of all possible reach of your hands no matter how many different angles you tried to get at it? Do you remember when you would have given anything to get off by yourself and have one good scratch at an itchy spot where no one could stop you? Apparently Rupert Hughes, who wrote "Scratch My Back," a Goldwyn Eminent Authors' production, was thru the ordeal or he never could have built such a splendid comedy on the idea of the itchy spot.

Val Romney, "who always did what he wanted to" (played by T. Roy Barnes) had never forgotten his experience on a yatching trip when he'd have given anything he possesed for a chance to scratch his back when it was itchy, but was kept in misery by pretty girls and a talkative woman who wouldn't let him go until he finally broke away and had it scratched by a rough old sailor he met on the deck of the yacht.

And then one night years after he went to a theater and sat behind a lady with a very beautiful back, who turned out later to be Madeline Loton (Helene Chadwick), whose husband (Lloyd T. Whitlock) has been offered a diplomatic post. Val admired the back until he saw a little twitching of the shoulder blade that made him understand at once. The lady was going thru the same experience he had on the yatching trip. She was surrounded by fashionable friends at the theater and couldn't scratch it and besides she couldn't reach the itchy spot even if she wished to upset all the proprieties by scratching her back in public. It was too much for Val. Sympathy ran away with him and when the lights went out he scratched her back for her.

But Val was horrified when during the next act, she slipped him a note thanking him and asking him to call at her home, the address of which she had written. He saw trouble ahead and swore "I'll never scratch another back." And he didn't.

The Eden

The Washer Supreme

that gives you an

Abundance of Clean Clothes

without hard work or trouble

In Grandmother's time dainty things had to be cleansed by dipping them up and down in warm suds. Today the Eden washes our frailest garments in exactly the same way and with the same care and gentleness. The Eden also cleanses perfectly the heaviest blankets, linens and all washable household articles without the work and wear of rubbing.

There is more to be considered in a washing machine than just washing.

The Eden has many exclusive features that have been added and perfected through its eight years of successful operation in the home.

The Eden does more than wash clothes, blankets and other things immaculately clean and without wear or injury. Every part is designed as though it were the only part—it is built to give a lifetime of satisfactory service.

The Eden Safety Swinging Wringer automatically locks before the rollers can start and swings into five convenient positions only when the rollers are stationary—an exclusive Eden safety device.

The Eden Sediment Zone makes Eden-washed things cleaner because it catches and holds all loosened dirt as it is flushed out of the clothes and keeps the wash water continually clean and sanitary. The Eden is the only washing machine that has this most essential feature.

You never have to pull the cylinder around to get at the doors of the Eden washer. Eden doors automatically stop at the top.

Two simple levers control the entire action of the washer and wringer. There are no confusing belts, cogs, or bicycle chains to break—no exposed moving parts.

FARM BUREAU COMMITTEE MET

Agricultural Associations' Marketing Plan Is Endorsed—Approve Plan of Using Men From State Hospital for Farm Work —General Program Is Outlined.

The executive committee of the Morgan County Farm bureau held a session Saturday afternoon at the bureau rooms. Township chairmen and managers of co-operative elevators were also present. This conference was held particularly to discuss the recommendations of the committee of seventeen, with reference to marketing of grain. After a thoro discussion of this matter and the plan had been fully explained, by unonimous action it was approved. Thomas Cain is to attend a conference in Chicago at an early date, when this marketing problem is to be considered, and he was instructed to vote in favor of the committee of seventeen report and plan and to work for its adoption.

Some matters relating to the Morgan county fair and livestock exposition, which is to be given in August, were presented, and it was decided that it will be a wise course for the farm bureau to assist with this exposition as far as possible. To that end H. J. Rucker, assistant county agent, was instructed to devote as much time as possible to the project. Committees were appointed on budget, auditing, membership and resolutions.

A committee including F. E. Drury, A. A. Curry, Andrew Harris and J. W. Arnold presented a report approving the plan which has been followed by the management of Jacksonville State hospital in detailing patients for certain classes of farm work. In the view of the committee this system was beneficial to the patients and it is certainly helpful to the farming community. The view of the local bureau will be transmitteed to the state authorities.

A formal program of work for farm bureau was outlined and it will be followed in the future activities of the bureau. This program is divided into major and minor projects and is as follows:

Major Projects.

The increased use of limestone and phosphate.

Larger acreage of Legumes on every farm.

Corn Diseases and Seed Certification.

Livestock and Farm Products Show.

Minor Projects.

Pure bred Sire campaign.

Organization of Breed Associations.

Livestock Shipping Associations.

Pure Bred sales.

Boys' and Girls' Pig Club.

Poultry Culling and Management.

Grain Marketing.

Co-operative buying Seeds, Fertilizers and Feeds.

Farm Accounting, Farm Arrangement, Co-operative Leases, Locating money for borrows.

Social Events

Miss Wadsworth Guest Of Honor at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ayers entertained a limited company at 6 o'clock dinner Saturday night, in honor of Miss Mary Wadsworth who will leave at an early date for a lengthy sojourn in France. Following the serving of the dinner several hours were spent at bridge and altogether it was a most delightful affair.

Miss Crum Entertains Company of Friends.

Miss Bertha Crum entertained a number of people at her country home at Ashland Friday afternoon at a five hundred party in honor of Mrs. Singleton of St. Louis. Dancing was enjoyed and the afternoon was enoyably spent. Those present were: Misses Virginia Beggs, Mrs. John Beggs, Harriet Haggertj, Louis Wyatt, Marjorie Taylor, Mrs. Robinson Strawn, Mrs. Anderson and Lulu Bell Hildreth, Miss Hildreth received the guest prize.

Seniors of School for Deaf Entertained

The freshmen, sophomores and juniors of the State School for the Deaf entertained the members of the senior class Saturday evening in one of the club rooms at the institution. It was a "children's" party, and the girls and boys came arrayed in clever costumes of crepe paper of their own designing.

The room was decorated in green and white, the class colors, and presented a very handsome appearance. The simple games of childhood furnished the amusement and during the evening a buffet luncheon was served. The color scheme of green and white was artistically carried out in the refreshments.

Miss Frances Wood Entertains Seniors

Members of the senior class of the State School for the Deaf were entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Frances Wood, on Jordan street. This was one of a series of parties given in honor of the seniors and was a most pleasant event. The girls and boys greatly enjoyed viewing the fine collection of souvenirs which Miss Wood brought from abroad, and were much interested in her description of some of the places visited.

Games and contests were on the afternoon program, Miss Emma Claus winning the prize in a clever guessing contest. In the late afternoon a delightful supper was served, the menu including sandwiches, salad, candy and other good things to eat.

MRS. RACHEL PETERS IS 88 YEARS OF AGE

Long Time Resident of Morgan County Celebrated Important Anniversary Saturday — Resides at Paschall Home.

Saturday marked the 88th birthday of Mrs. Rachel Peters, who makes her home with her brother, Thomas Paschall, at his farm a few miles west of Jacksonville. Altho Mrs. Peters has passed so many milestones and has seen so many history making years, she is today still vigorous in mind and body. The years have dealt kindly with Mrs. Peters and possibly it has been because of her interest in all the affairs of life that she has grown old so gracefully.

Mrs. Peters was born near Virginia back in 1833 when Cass county was a part of Morgan county. Her marriage to Nathaniel Peters occurred in 1851, just about ten years later her husband enlisted in Co. E of the 36th Illinois infantry and served thru the Civil War. Her brother, Newton Paschall, was also a veteran of the War of the Rebellion and was one of the prisoners who perished in Andersonville.

Those who know Mrs. Peters best are familiar with her splendid memory and know that she is wonderfully well informed on the history of her own country, while still more intimate affairs are remembered in even a greater degree. It has only been during the past two years that failing eyesight has interferred with reading and up until that time Mrs. Peters read not only the papers and magazines of the day but found some of her best friends among books.

Mrs. Peters has for many years been a member of Mt. Zion church and has taken a very active part in all the departments of church work.

Because of her close relationship with the War of the Rebellion, this long time resident of the country found peculiar interest in the World War. Referring recently to these two conflicts, Mrs. Peters said: "I know something about the hardships thru which the heroes of '61 passed, but it must be admitted that the soldiers of the World War had privations just as great. Theirs was the greater disadvantage, too, of being thousands of miles away from home and friends. This of course applies particularly to the American soldiers who had part in the great conflict. Even the horrors of Andersonville were equalled by some of the events of the World War."

It was natural that Mrs. Peters should have a special interest in the war in Europe because one of her nephews, Homer Paschall, was overseas and in active conflict. While there was no formal observance of the important anniversary yesterday, many friends of this aged resident of the county called to extend their congratulations, while others sent letters or postcards. All joined in the wish that her unusual record may be increased by still other years.

TAKKE AUTO JOURNEY THRU MANY STATES

Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Haire of Denver, Colo., together with D. D. Wilson and Miss Ella Wilson of Virginia, were in Jacksonville yesterday to spend a few hours with Mr. Haire's uncle, J. W. Breckon.

Mr. and Mrs. Haire are spending a few days in Virginia before resuming their journey to Denver They were here Saturday in their Ford car, in which they have traveled the past three months something more than 7,000 miles. They started with a set of Hawkeye tires which are still in excellent condition.

The travelers have been as far south as Miami and Cape Sable in Florida and the norther terminus of the trip was at North Point, Ontario. The itinerary has taken them into twenty states and they have visited ten state capitals. They had the good fortune to be in Washington during the inauguration and the advantage of a fine position not far from the ceremonial. They thoroly enjoy automobile travel and hope to take another journey at no distant date.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PULLMAN TO BE HELD TODAY

Chicago, April 2.—The body of Mrs. George M. Pullman, who died at Pasadena, California, last Monday was brought here today in a special car. Accompanying the body were former Governor and Mrs. Frank O. Lowden, the latter Mrs. Pullman's daughter, Miss Harriet Lowden and Francis Carolan of San Francisco, grandson of Mrs Pullman.

Funeral services will be held at the Pulman home tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Pullman willl be buried in Graceland cemetery, beside her husband.

GERMANY STILL PROTESTING TROOPS

Geneva, April 2.—(By The Associated Press.)—Germany has sent another note to the secretariat of the league of nations protesting the presence of French troops and the exercise by them of military jurisdiotion in the Saar territory. She considers these measures contrary to the Versailles treaty and demands that the protest be sent to members of the league, who, the note says, should decide upon the question.

BIG MILITARY OPERATIONS PENDING

Madrid, April 2.—Reports from Melilla, Morocco, indicate a big military operation is pending near Alhucemas, for which the most active preparations are in progress. Operations are being superintended by General Berenguer Spanish high commissioner to Morocco.

PUBLIC HEALTH CONFERENCE THEME

An article in another column makes reference to the community meeting at the Congregational church tonight at 6 o'clock to which the public is invited. The Brotherhood of the church will serve supper at a charge of 25c and afterward a round table conference on public health matters will be held. There will be addresses by Dr. Carl E. Black, Dr. F. A. Norris and Mayor E. E. Crabtree. Then will come a general discussion, the purpose being to get the best results possible from the health survey made by the Red Cross a few weeks since.

Roger Carter and Will Kirby will sing, with Willard Wesner as accompanist. Lyndell Conboy will play a violin solo and W. E. Kritch will also appear on the musical program. It is the expectation that the Guild of the church will have charge of next Sunday's conference, when matters relating to recreation will be discussed, and the third conference will relate to education, the program to be in charge of the Congregational Aid society.

A WESTERN VISITOR

H. J. McLaughlin of Doniphan, Nebr., arrived in Jacksonville last night and is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Black, to spend a number of days with his mother, Mrs. Frances McLaughlin. The visitor is a member of the general assembly of Nebraska.

London, April 2.—The provincial council of North Holland has decided to grant the request of former Crown Prince Frederick William of Gemany for exemption for taxation, says an Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph tonight.

Deaths

Doenges.

The death of George A. Doenges accurred at 12:30 o'clock Saturday at his residence on South Clay avenue. The deceased has been ill for an extended period of months and his death was not unexpected.

Mr. Doenges formerly lived in Jerseyville but had been a resident of Jacksonville for a number of years. He had been a valued employee of the R. T. Cassell Cigar Co.

The deceased is survived by his wife and four children. The remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of John H. O'Donnell and today will be sent to Jerseyville for interment.

THE SULLIVAN BANK SITUATION

Springfield, Ill., April 2.—Miller Weir, consulting bank examiner today gave the facts to State Auditor Russel about the condition of the Merchants and Farmers State bank at Sullivan. His report gave the liabilities of the bank at $835,034; resources $572,901 and the shortage $262,-133.

He also reported two plans that could be followed, one to ask a receiver in which the depositors would get between thirty and forty cents on the dollar or a reorganization of the bank with the depositors as the stockholders. All officers are to resign and W. A. Steele, president and Z. R. Whitfield, cashier to sign over all their property to a trustee to be held until the complete audit is made and responsibility fixed for the shortage.

Mr. Weir reported that the grand jury was not to be called until the proper time.

THE JACKSONVILLE ROTARY CAMP COTTAGE

The club house maintained by the Jacksonville Rotary club for the use of organized, properly supervised groups of young people is now being reserved for the season. Permits for its use will be granted for not to exceed one week, with privilege of three days' extension, if there is no conflicting reservation. Reservations must be made at least three weeks in advance.

The club will provide fuel, lights and telephone for which each group using the cottage shall pay five cents per day per capita. The person in charge of each group shall be responsible for leaving the building and contents clean and in order, the observance of the posted house rules and for all damage to property.

Applications for reservation shall be made to Frank J. Heinl, secretary of the house committee.

The camp cottage is a commodious two-story bungalow located on a beautiful body of water about 24 miles from Jacksonville. It is in the edge of Meredosia adjoining the U. S. and Illinois rish hatchery and about a mile from the railroad station. It will easily accommodate 40 or 50 persons, is well screened and comfortable and has plenty of good water and toilet facilities with a pressure water system.

The highway from Jacksonville to the cottage is usually in very good condition. The cottage is equipped with range, cooking utensils, ice-box, 48 cots and a furnished room for the adult in cahrge of the group occupying the cottage. Other equipment will be added. Groups using the cottage must supply, for the present, bedding, knives, forks and dishes.

Provisions may be had at Meredosia. Boats and launches may be rented from Thomas McGinnis and S. J. Barnett, either of whom may be reached by telephone at Meredosia. Sam Kuhlman will ransfer baggage to and from the cottage.

The cottage is already reserved for some of the week ends in May, for most of June and for part of July and August.

Subscriptions made to Passavant Hospital building fund are now due and payable to F. E. Farrell, treasurer, at the Farrell State Bank.

SIMPLON TUNNEL NEARING COMPLETION

Geneva, — By the A. P.—The second Simplon tunnel under the Alps between Switzerland and Italy will be completed by the end of July, engineers say. Railroad traffic will be diverted thru it immediately and repairs made in the first tunnel, opened 20 years ago. Both will be used some time in 1922.

The first tunnel 12¼ miles long will cost only about one-third that amount. Construction was begun before the war but work was abandoned because the workmen were nearly all mobilized. Half way thru subterranean boiling springs were uncovered and many workmen were killed.

Just as You Need It, Price Drops On Your Favorite Remedy, Dreco

Right when it is most needed is the time that your old favorite remedy Dreco drops back to "before the war" price. Thousands take a good blood purifier and system cleanser at this season of the year who never take medicine at any other time. Therefore this announcement will be hailed with delight as Dreco is now economical enough for every member of the family to take a full treatment.

Dreco is the medicine of which Mr. Howard Aiken, prosperous farmer said, "My stomach has been in such bad condition, I couldn't bear to smell food cooking. My liver was lazy allowing excess bile to go thru the system insead of throwing it off, which made my head swim and I felt like I was going to fall. My bowels were clogged up and I had to be continually taking something to move them."

"I have taken two bottles of Dreco and there is a great change in my condition. I didn't avoid the kitchen and I am always hungry and enjoy every mouthful I eat and nothing seems to hurt me. My bowels move regular as clock work. I have no more dizzy spells and am better in every way."

Dreco has proven an ideal tonic for elderly persons also weak, sickly people and children. It builds them up, creates a healthy appetite; induces sound, refreshing sleep; keeps the bowels moving, the kidneys active and clears the bile from the liver. Dreco is pleasant to take and the action is prompt, pleasant and efficient.

Dreco is being specially introduced by Coover Drug Co., and J. F. Shreve, in Jacksonville, and sold by all druggists.

"Don't worry about the class you were born in—Worry about the class that was born in you," said Doctor Eaton, at the Annual Chamber of of Commerce Meeting, in a large city recently.

Doctor Eaton is exactly right.

No matter what class you were born in, there is so much class in a Jacksonville Tailoring Company suit that you can "look right" for the same amount of money you are now paying for inferior clothes.

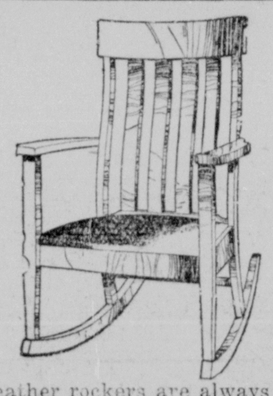

A good tailored to measure suit, of our imported or domestic fabrics, is a whole sermon in "class." Drop in and see the beautiful Spring styles.

A Farmer's Opinion

My Dope on the Agricultural Business for 1921

There are three main obsacles in the path of better business:

1. International exchange which hinders export trade.
2. Labor defiance against reduction in wages.
3. Agricultural depression due to high cost of 1920 production and severe fall in price of farm products of that year.

Others can discuss the first two topics with more knowledge than I possess, tho it is worth while to observe, briefly, that the New Administration at Washington has done nothing to justify the fear that the counsels of insularity would prevail. America is not going to cut loose from the world. Self-interest if no nobler motive, forbids. Eight billion dollars of export trade (1920 record) is at stake.

Labor is daily becoming reconciled to facts and is accepting reductions. The textile mills of the East are resuming at much lower costs of labor. The packers' strike is settled on a fair compromise. This morning's paper reports that the chairman of of the Interstate Commerce Commission and of the Railroad Labor Board are called to the White House to consult with the President for the early relief of the railroads. Who can doubt that these major industrial hindrances will soon be reduced if not removed? Minor ones will follow in their wake.

This very morning we also read that Willys-Overland which has been tied up with labor troubles for almost a year, is resuming with 7,000 men. Automobile factories, employing about 300,000, wil be going nearly full blast in April. At Akron one tire company reports, March 30th, a sympathetic movement with the automobile trade—an increase of 70 per cent in April sales over March. Twelve hundred of its former employees are returning to work. Another Akron tire factory has actually resumed three eight-hour shifts. Doesn't this mean business?

But the big problem is that of the farm.

Forty-two per cent of our people still live there. For nearly eight months their purchasing power has been seriously impaired. ?Even big farmers have been buying cautiously and many of them have not been paying their bills. What has this meant to the local tradesmen, and then to the jobber and then to the mill man, can easily be imagined.

Is this situation to improve and improve soon? That is what you wish to know, whether you are doing business with the farmer directly or indirectly. Everybody is interested in his business because it is the basic business of the world.

Perhaps you would like a farmer's opinion

Personally, or selfishly, if you please, I am more interested in the farming business than in any other, not because I own and edit a National farm paper, but because I own and operate a lot of land. In normal times it should be my biggest source of income. Last year it was nil. What will it be this year—1921? I want to know and you want to know, because I am actually one of about seven million producers of about twenty billions of new wealth every year. If we can produce it at a profit, you share our gains, if we do it at a loss, you lose also because, then we cannot buy much of what you are selling.

To get the real essential facts which concern us all most deeply at this moment, whether we stand behind the plow or behind the counter, I have made a thoro investigation and have traveled several thousand miles since March 15th to do it.

I find:

1. That the farmer is re-adjusted mentally to the situation. He is not expecting $2.00 for this year's wheat, nor $1.50 for corn, nor $1.00 for oats, nor $20.00 a hundred pounds for live beef, nor $15.00 for pork. What surplus of these he has left from 1920 he is going to sell soon; he is selling it now to make room for the new crop. He is going to have quite a bit of money right quick. Not enough to make him rich, nor enough to pay his debts but enough to pay his small bills and that is important.

2. I find that everywhere the winter has been most exceptional, almost phenomenal for mildness and lack of snow. In February that was a bad augury. It meant no sub-soil moisture to make a crop next summer. But in March came copious rains. The frost way out of the ground and the water which fell leisurely and not in torrents, soaked in, while March rains usually fall on frozen ground and run off, carrying rich surface soil and fertility. This is important. It means a crop next summer if no unusual accidents intervene.

3. I find that cost of production for 1921, so far as labor affects, is going to be cut severely, perhaps actually in half. In the East and Middle West we paid last year $50.00 to $70.00 and board. This year $35.00 to $50.00 will get good men and plenty of them Last year I employed an average of 70 farm and ranch men in the far west for about six months of the busy season and their average wage was between $90 and $100 and board. Even sheep-herders got $100. This year sheep-herders will get $50 and ranch and farm hands will not get more.

4. Now does it require the gift of prophecy to foretell what will be the farmer's state of mind about two months hence, providing he sees a good crop making He is making it under almost pre-war costs, excepting value of land, and he is not sorry that his land has increased in value. He is disillusioned about war prices, for meat and grain. He is not mad at everybody, for example the fellow who last year sold him sugar at 30 cents a pound made, perhaps out of beets which the farmer sold for $10 a ton. He is not mad at the city workman who was getting $10.00 a day for eight hours' work while the farmer put in fourteen hours saving a crop which he sold at a loss. This year the city scale is still $10.00 in the building trades at least but there isn't much building.

The farmer laughs! Can you blame him?

But he laughs! That is important. It is many a moon since he laughed. A man who can laugh is a man who can trade, and "branch out" and do business.

My hunch is that the farmer will be in a buying mood sooner than a lot of people suspect. My fear is that the latter will not awake to the situation until their opportunity to trade with him will have gone for this year. There will be some, perhaps only a few, with better intuition or foresight, who will get into touch with him early, during the summer season, the so-called dull season when "nothing is doing." But don't forget it is the crop season when the farmer is feeling good. Then is the time to start selling him. Others will not think so. They will "wait and see." Later they will wake up with a lot of stuff on their shelves and a lot of machines in the factory or storage yard unsold, and like the penitent of the parable, they will cry, "The Harvest is past and the summer is ended and we are not saved!"

CHARLES P TAFT HAS FINE ART COLLECTION

One of Finest Collections In America — Contains Many Masterpieces.

CINCINNATI, O. — (By The Associated Press.)—In the low old fashioned colonial home here of Charles P. Taft, brother of the former president, is to be found one of the finest private collections of the old masters in this country. Little known to the public at large, the paintings that Mr. and Mrs. Taft have acquired in the past twenty years are noted in the small circle of the artistic.

The collection is built around the Dutch, English and French schools. In some cases the Taft pictures are the finest examples of their authors to be seen in the United States.

This notably true, according to the late Frank Duveneck, of Frans Hals and two of his portraits to be found here, "The Young Man of Haarlem," and "The Young Woman of Haarlem." There was no better judge of Hals in America than Duveneck, in the judgment of friends of the noted Cincinnati artist.

Representation of the Dutch school nearly all of their great masters, both early and late. Among familiar names of this school to be found in the Taft homestead are Rembrandt, Terborch, Steen, Ruisdael, Hobbema, Maris and Mauve.

The English school is represented almost entirely by examples of the great portrait painters, together with a few landscapes by Turner and Constable. Here are to be seen Hoppner's portrait of Mrs. Gwyn ("The Jesamy Bride"), Gainsboroughs portrait of "Maria Walpole, Dutchess of Gloucester," Rommey' portrait of Mrs. Johnson, and Constables "Dedham Mill."

French Collection Fine.

The French collection contains a fine showing of the Barbizon School of landscape painters, including Millet's "La Maternite" and Daubignys "Evening on the Oise."

Portraits by Francisco Goya of Queen Maria Luisa and "The Torreador Costillarius" are among the most vivid and vital of all the masterpieces. There is a portrait of Former President William Howard Taft by Sorolla, another great Spaniard, and Portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft, by Madrazo also Spanish.

Peal, Farney, Chase and Duveneck are the Americans represented. "The Cobbler's Apprentice" by Duveneck is one of the latest acquisitions of the Taft collection.

Morris W. Brockwell, who recently complied a catalogue of the Taft collection says in its introduction: "It is the unanimous opinion of those critics who have seen them (they were never shown in Europe) that they are without a rival in any National Museum or private collection."

GERMANS GOING TO SOUTH AMERICA

Buenos Aires. — By the A. P. —Four hundred German immigrants came to Argentina a few days ago to seek their fortunes anew on board the first passenger vessel flying the German flag which entered this port since the beginning of the war. The majority of them were members of the former German middle-class and about 80 were officers of the German army, but few are understood to have possessed any capital with which to start life afresh. Most of them were counting upon prompt employment to provide them with livelihood. The same vessel landed about 300 German immigrants in Brazil and a smaller number in Uruguay. It is understood that this was the first of several steamers which are to bring contingents of German immigrants to these shores.

H. F. Ommen and family were shopping in Jacksonville Thursday.

A landscape gardener from Bloomington has been in town all the past week superintending the setting out of trees and shrubbery at the Community high school grounds, the Harmony school and also the home grounds of L. H. Nienhueser and Grover Smith.

Mrs. Bernard Allen came over from Versailles Saturday morning to attend a party given for Miss Addie Fox.

Grover Smith was a Jacksonville visitor Friday.

William Hamilton and wife, from near Carthage, are visiting at the home of W. I. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burnham reached home Tuhrsday night, after a three months' stay in Oregan and California. While enthusiastic over their trip, they are glad to be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mangrum of St. Louis, are guests at the home of H. E. Tucker and also greeting other old friends.

Mrs. F. P. McKinney returned from Carrollton Friday night, where she was called on account of the serious illness of a relative.

Mrs. Andrew Allen and Mrs. Ernest Nienhueser entertained at a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nienhueser, honoring Miss Addie Fox, whose engagement to Mr. John Claus was recently announced. Music and contests were the entertainment of the afternoon, prizes being won by Miss Amy Onken and Mrs. Albert McFarland.

A basket of dainty and beautiful gifts, presented to the honor guest, was proof of the high regard in which she is held by her friends. At a late hour refreshments were served. Those present from out of town were: Mrs. Albert McFarland, Miss Marion Miller of Jacksonville, Mrs. Minnie Coultas of Markham.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lindsay and family of Orleans, spent Saturday in the city shopping.

100 Per Cent Efficient Battery

Elimination of separators from the ELECTROLYTE means 100 per cent battery efficiency. It means a battery free from ruinous sulphation, free from constant care and attention. This wonderful new invention means longer life for your battery, makes frequent recharging unnecessary, prevents loss of capacity, insures 100 per cent efficiency of the plates. The ELECTROLYTE Separatorless Storage Battery means not only 100 per cent in results, but requires a minimum of cost, care and attention.

The ELECTROLYTE Battery does away with periodic recharging and overcharging to prevent and reduce sulphation. There is no need to limit the discharge to a certain voltage per cell or to take apart and wash plates when not in use for an extended period. It cannot be injured by buckling of plates on heavy discharges and is not harmed if left uncharged for any length of time. When not in use no special attention is required, except that it be kept filled with distilled water.

Forceful Facts Concerning the Interest of Former Soldiers, Sailors and Marines.

The Canadian Khaki University was established September, 1918.

Only 1,240 bodies of the 75,882 American soldiers who died overseas, remain unidentified.

The Royal Dental Corps is a new branch of service recently established in the British army.

Twenty cents of each dollar paid by the American tax payer is spent for present defense (army and navy).

The victory slogan of Japan is "Buun Chokyn," which saluatation translated is, "That we may have eternal good fortne in war.'

The Secretary of the Navy has issued orders that he will not rescind the much-discussed order abolishing the wine mess on board naval vessels.

According to military regulations when a man is discharged from the permanent forces of the Canadian army, he is given a cap and a suit of clothes.

Under the new adminstration, there are 70,550 disabled former United States soldiers, sailors and marines now in training for vocational education.

The Japanese Government has begun the building of an aircraft carrier, capable of conveying thirty or forty planes, as an adjunct to the battle fleet.

The United States stands ninth on the list of military strength of the leading nations of the world, altho third on the list in the matter of population.

Seventeen camps will be open June 16 under the direction of the War Department for the training of 11,500 students from high schools, colleges, and universities.

Because of insufficient or improper addresses, hundreds of medals, decorations, and citations intended for World War veterans are still in the hands of the Adjutant General of the United States.

There are more than 4,000 vacancies in the commissioned personnel of the United States army. Of this number, 1,200 are in the grade of first lieutenant and the remainder in the grade of second lieutenantn.

Out of a total of 40 designs submitted by 30 corporations and individuals in the first open airplane design competition conducted by the Navy department, five designs for a new type of naval plane were accepted.

Twenty ex-naval flying officers and men of Great Britain have been engaged by the Japanese Government to be used in instructing the new Japanese naval air service in the use of airplanes aboard war vesseis and in the manufacture of airplanes and motors.

Out of the total ordinary expendiunres of $3,247,295,635,83 made by the Federal Government during the eight months from July 1, 1920 to February 28, 1921, the War Department is credited with having spent $749,373,263.50, and the Navy Department $444,087,279.00.

The Governor of New York recently issued a proclamation setting aside the week beginning May 20 and ending June 4, as a "National Disabled Soldiers' Week" in the state and urged the citizens to look carefully into the needs of disabled soldiers within the border of the State.

Seventy-six enlisted men of the Soldiers University at Camp Dix, New Jersey, have been graduated with ratings that will entitle them to admission to West Point Military Academy. Several of the candidates came into the service with little education, but eager for learning.

Great Britain is now working on a system for rehabilitating more than 23,000 blind war veterans. The men will be taught massage, poultry raising, mat and basket-making, boot repairing, joinery and music. Many efficient stenographers, typists and telephone operators have been trained.

Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War, has been appointed a colonel in the Officers' Reserve Corps of the army, for service in the Judge Advocate General's Department in that corps. The position carries no pay with it, so long as Mr. Baker serves on the inactive list of the reserve corps.

Colonel Robert E. Shannon, acting officer in charge of the graves registration service at Hoboken, N. J., at which port he was in charge of the loading and unloading of troops and thru which 1,777,109 soldiers were embarked and 1,481,000 debarked, is now handling the incoming coffins of the American dead.

As a result of the lack of opportunity to take physical exercise, half of the youths of France are physically unfit for military service. Out of more than 3,000,000 eligibles, only 165,000 measured up to the ordinary physical standards in a recent examination of the class of 1921, which will join the colors soon.

Many women of the Philadelphia Association of War Mothers have completed their plans for a trip to the battlefields and cemeteries of France. The mothers will sail from New York on July 19. The schedule provides for a nine-day trip to the devastated regions. The cost of each member for the complete trip will not exceed $300 for their two-months' tour.

The United States soldiers in Germany must be the best-looking army on the Rhine. They cannot wear a dilapidated cap, long hair, short collar on the out side, a soiled, wrinkled or torn uniform, carelessly wrapped leggings, shoes, unshined or down at the heel, unshaven faces, or shabby campaign badges. All buttons must be buttoned, and hands out of the pockets.

Armistice Day this year has been chosen for the burial of an unidentified soldier in Arlington cemtery in memory of all those who fall in the World War. The War Department expects to recommend also that the Congresional Medal of Honor be awarded in the name of all American unidentified dead, as was done by Congress in memory of the unwnown dead of Great Britain and France.

BURNS PHOTOGRAPH AND $5,000 BILL

BUDAPEST—(By the A. P.)—Stephen Nemeth, a clerk, wasting away on the little food his salary would buy appealed to his almost forgotten brother George, who went to America years ago and is now in Chicago.

When months later there came from George simply a large photograph, Stephen Nemeth, disappointed and angry, threw his brother's picture in the fire. The next day there came a letter. It read:

"My Dear Stephen: If you will carefully divide in two the photo I sent you yesterday you will find a $5,000 bill concealed between the two sheets. Enjoy it, get in good health and don't forget, your loving brother, George."

THE SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE.

The Board of Directors of the Social Service League met in regular monthly session in their rooms, West Morgan street, Tuesday evening, March 29th. Sixteen members present and listened to reports and discussed new plans with unusual interest. The new superintendent, Miss Anne Fowler, who assumed her duties the first of the month has already gotten the work well in hand. Her report showed a volume of work done and some very effective service rendered to individuals and the community. She suggested some plans for the future which were highly endorsed by the Board and the prospects are very propitious for the accomplishment of constructive social work in the community. Miss Fowler feels that the widows with families and a limited income, present a definite problem for careful consideration. If the mother is required to support the family by working away from home, the children do not get necessary care and the problems of delinquency often result later. It is a matter of public economy to make provision for such a family either by home work or relief so the mother may be free to look after her children. The case of a widow with three children is now under investigation and advisement. She cannot obtain a pension as she was with relatives out of the county long enough to forfeit her claim. The little ones need a mother's fostering care and already some willing relatives have been found to lend limited assistance which will help greatly. Another widow with one child and no means of support needs the same kind of guidance to protect the child from unavoidable neglect while the mother struggles with the question of shelter, food and warmth.

Sixty two families received more or less intensive service in March; seven of these were registered for the first time by the League. Only a small amount of material relief was given; rehabilitation and constructive work was done by the superintendent. A total of 265 visits were recorded for the month, including 95 office calls. Hearty cooperation from county, city and school authorities has helped in the care of more than a score of juvenile delinquents, truants and city matron cases. The Social Service League is now on a substantial basis and equipped with a well trained worker for effective community work.

Robin Strawn of Alexander, came to the city on business yesterday.

"BLIND WIVES" DUE IN TOWN TOMORROW

Manager Luttrell of the Majestic theater announces that he will show the William Fox special picture, "Blind Wives," tomorrow and Tuesday. Those who follow the stage remember "My Lady's Dress" and the great success of this play, written by Edward Knoblock, in New York, London and Paris. On this play the Fox picture is based. "Blind Wives" is described as not only of singular power dramatically, but exceedingly lavish in production.

Knobloch, born in America, has made his home in England many years. "My Lady's Dress" was first produced in London at the Theatre Royal April 21, 1914, and in New York at the Playhouse October 10, 1914. It created a marked sensation. The theme was novel. It was, in fact, several plays within a play. It was daring in treatment; but each play, or episode, was complete in itself, and all were combined in such a way that they worked toward one great climax.

"Blind Wives," the Fox film version, it is said follows along the general lines of the play and works up to a fine climax is heightened by the climaxes in the several episodes.

This special production is certainly timely. In these days of the high cost of milady's clothes, not only wives, but husbands—or should we say particularly husbands?—are interested in my lady's dress; and this being true, they will appreciate a picture showing how and where to begin lowering the cost of my lady's dress.

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work everyday, but felt stupid and would have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much, so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about it and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments." — STELLA LINXWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Ind.

Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linxwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

SUIT FILED FOR SEPARATE MAINTENANCE

A suit for separate maintenance was filed Friday by Mrs. Mary Catherine Cruzan, against her husband, E. L. Cruzan. The action was brought by W. N. Hairgrove as attorney, the bill setting forth that the marriage occurred February, 1913. Mrs. Cruzan says that she has been compelled to separate from her husband because of continued acts of cruelty. An injunction was issued by Circuit Clerk Wanamaker to prevent the defendant from disposing of any property prior to the hearing.

DO YOU CATCH COLD EASILY?

HOW TO AVOID IT

Colds are due to germs. No one can prevent the germs from getting into your nose and throat. But you can help keep plenty of strong, vigorous, "antibodies" in your blood to fight and kill off the nasty "cold germs" before they do you any harm.

To develop these germ destroying "antibodies" properly, you must have plenty of pure, rich, red blood and a strong, vigorous constitution—In fact, this is the best preventative against almost any disease.

If you are weak, nervous or run-down, or subject to colds, take no chances. One day you may develop serious throat, bronchial or lung trouble or perhaps pneumonia and you may go off like a shot. Therefore commence to enrich your blood and fortify yourself against "disease germs" today. To build more and better blood and make stronger nerves, there is nothing superior to NUXATED IRON as it contains organic iron like the iron in your blood combined with a product representing the principal chemical constituent of active living force for feeding the nerves. Nuxated Iron may therefore be said to be both a blood and a nerve food. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor, strength and endurance in two weeks' time.

Over 4,000,000 people are using it annually. It has been highly endorsed by former United States Senators, U. S. Army Generals, many physicians and prominent men. Even the Pope at Rome mentioned it favorably in a communication to the Proprietor of the Pharmacy Normale of Paris.

Satisfaction guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "NUXATED" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

NUXATED IRON

MANCHESTER PEOPLE BUILD PASTOR'S GARAGE

Members of Baptist Church Build Garage for Rev. Mr. Peek — Other Manchester Items of Interest.

Manchester, April 2.—Recently quite a number of the members of the church gathered at Baptist parsonage, the men for the purpose of building a garage while the ladies who brought well filled baskets prepared a splendid dinner to which the hungry men did ample justice. In the afternoon the ladies assisted Mrs. Peek with some sewing and the day proved enjoyable to those present as well as a benefit to Rev Peek and wife. About 40 were there.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Rink and young son of Bushnell, Ill., are visiting their daughter, Miss Josephine Rink, a sophomore. They came in time to enjoy both of the readings given by Professor Clark Friday. Miss Lois Coultus of Winchester was also over to enjoy the reading of Androcles and the Lion Friday evening.

President Harker is in Kansas City, where he attended a meeting of the Kansas City society Saturday afternoon. He was to be the principal speaker and expected to tell of the plans of the college for the campaign which is soon to begin for $500,000.

Miss Harriet Keys will read next Tuesday evening at Brown's Business college. She will appear on the program just before Miss Margaret Owen, the world's champion typist.

The preliminary contest in declamation will be held next Monday. The winners in this contest will compete for the Wesley Mathers prize in declamation.

On the evening of April 29 Mr. Robert B. Harshe, assistant director of the Chicago Art Institute, will give a lecture at the Woman's college on modern Art and the Modernists. The lecture will be illustrated with slides. Mr. Harshe is being brought here by the Art Department.

Miss Jones of the Department of Home Economics, has arranged for a special demonstration in cooking to be given in the department on May 19. At this time several new ideas will be shown in regard to proper heat control for gas ovens.

The outstanding event of the week was the appearance of Professor S. H. Clark of the University of Chicago, when he read for the students and faculty, and a few interested friends, "King Lear" in the afternoon, and "Androcles and the Lion" in the evening. The expense for bringing Professor Clark to Jacksonville were underwritten by the students and faculty. It is the plan of the college to bring some outstanding artist to the school next year who will give lectures or readings as has been given this year.

The Freshmen were formally recognized Thursday morning in chapel, when over a hundred of the new students assembled and were officially recognized in the chapel exercises. They continued with their celebration throughout the day, and had a number of clever stunts in the social room immediately after dinner in the evening.

The school has recently added to the Mothershead Memorial $100 worth of splendid books; among them being The Practical Book of Period Furniture, by Eberlein and McClure; The Practical Book of Oriental Rugs by Lewis; Moore's Old China; History of Aesthetic by Bosanquet; and The Decoration of Houses by Edith Wharton.

Mrs. W. L. Ramsey of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting her daughter, Miss Mona.

New classes in Shorthand, typewriting and bookkeeping at Brown's Business College, Monday, April 4. Enter for a good summer program of study.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

Representatives of the Student Volunteer Convention at Hedding College, made their report to the student body of the College at the chapel exercises Tuesday morning.

Reverend Billy LaMance, the Kentucky Evangelist who is conducting services at Grace M. E. church, gave a very interesting talk to the students at the chapel exercises Friday morning. His subject was "This One Thing I Do".

Six discussion groups on World Problems have been organized to follow out the line of thought suggested by J. Stitt Wilson in his series of addresses at the College. The Rev. Thomas W. Smith of Westminster church will meet the group which meets Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Roy F. Swift, Miss Adelle E. P. McQuistion, Miss Lois Daniels, Miss Winifred Butcher and Edw. Theis will lead the other five groups which meet Sunday evening in the Pilgrim Memorial at the Congregational church.

Installation of the new Y. W. C. A. cabinet will be held Monday afternoon. The advisory board will serve tea at the meeting.

Mrs. J. W. Dennis of Robinson visited her daughter Miss Irma Bower during the past week.

Helen Candee ex '22 was a visitor on the campus Friday.

Homer Bale '17 who was teaching in Hudson, Ohio last year is now employed in Chicago as an assistant state chemist.

Our ladies ready to wear and millinery departments are constantly being replenished with the newest creations as they appear in the market.

J. HERMAN

ERROR IN ITEM.

An item apeared in Friday's Journal that Misses Margaret Chapman, Emma Johnson, Dovie Smith and Earl Myers and Orville Petefish attended a dance at Virginia Wednesday evening. This item was in error, Misses Margaret Chapman and Dovie Smith, Earl Myers and Orville Petefish were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Chapman that evening.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

The College of Music was pleased to hear of the success of a Voice recital given by Miss Margaret Pruett at Bradentown, Florida, March 15, inasmuch as she is a pupil of Mrs. Forrest and the program was coached by her. The program consisted of three groups; the first a MacDowell and Buck group; the second an Irish group and sung in Irish costume; the third a group of Southern plantation songs. For the last group Miss Pruett wore an appropriate old-fashioned southern costume. It was given under the auspices of the Woman's Club of Bradentown, Florida, where Miss Pruett and her mother are spending the winter.

The College of Music welcomes the return of Miss Dorothy Fiedler, who resumes her music work after a very serious illness, extending over a period of three months.

A practice recital was given in the childrens' department, under the supervision of Miss Mehus, Saturday morning. Those who were on the program are: Mildred Edmunds, Marian Filson, Elizabeth Goodale, Dorothy Bernice Graham and Maxine Hart.

Miss Horsbrugh entertained President and Mrs. Harker, Director and Mrs. Pearson, Miss Austin, and a number of faculty members at her home Monday evening. The hostess and Miss Sapio delighted the guests with an informal musical consisting of ensemble numbers and solos.

There will be a pupils' recital in Music Hall Monday evening, April 11, at 8:15, to which the public is cordially invited. The program will be announced later.

Miss LeNore Kriege, pupil of Miss Louise Miller, will sing the offertory solo in the First Congregational church at the Sunday morning service.

Miss Isabel Woodman, organ pupil of Mr. Pearson, and Miss Mona Ramsey, voice pupil of Miss Miller, will give a certificate recital in Music Hall Monday evening, April 4. The program appears elsewhere in this issue. The public is cordially invited.

DAUGHTER OF THE EMBASSEY IS SAFE

Beautiful Russian Girl Who Frequented the Embassy Before the Days Of Bolshevism Is Safe in Germany.

THE HAGUE—By The Associated Press.—Word has reached one of the secretaries of the American legation here that Vera Meisner, the golden-haired Russian girl of 16, who was "Daughter of the Embassy" when the American embassy to Russia was located in Bolshevik-invested Vologda, is alive and safe in Germany.

To the Allied diplomatists who left Vologda in July, 1918, going hastily to Archangel, the fate of this very beautiful Russian girl has been, until now, one of the unsolved Russian mysteries.

Daughter of a Russian general, Vera was brought to the first reception given by Ambassador David R. Francis at Volgda. After that she ran into the embassy daily, playing the piano and singing and furnishing the only bright moments during the long and troubled months when the Allied diplomatic corps was constantly engaged in wearying struggles to maintain itself in the Bolshevik city. She became practically the hostess at the Embassy, Ambassador Francis treating her as a daughter.

When the Allied diplomatic train pulled out of Vologda for Archangel, in July, 1918, and it was impossible for Vera to go with her friends, she clung tearfully to the rails of the American car.

Knowing that many of the "aristocrats" and "bourgeoisie' of Vologda had been massacred by the Bolsheviki a few weeks after the ambassadors left, friends of the girl had given her up for lost. According to the advices just received, both she and her parents escaped and made their way to relatives in Germany.

SMITH COLLEGE GIRLS TO SHOW NEW GOWNS

Northampton, Mass.—Desire for more modest and more becoming clothes expressed by the sophomore class of Smith College took shape in a fashion show held in the Students' building at which 115 young women of the college entered their favorite gowns.

The competition was limited to gowns for afternoon and evening occasions but many girls came with clothes that were held to be more nearly approriate for street wear and were ruled out. A prize was offered by Dr. Joel E. Goldthwait of Boston.

The student-competitors were their own manikins, wearing the gowns that they had entered for the prize, walking across the stage before a numerous and critical audience and turning this way and that on a low platform for better display, then seating themselves in an arm-chair and repeating the moves before passing out.

Marking for lines, color, modesty, suitability and becomingness, the judges, of whom three were undergraduates, found their choice difficult to make. After several re-exhibits, the first award was given to a girl of the East, Carolyn Hinman, of East Orange, N. J., a senior, with honorable mention for a representative of the middle west in Dorothy Hickman of Lafayette, Ind., another senior.

PAIGE

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

ANNOUNCING
The PAIGE NATIONAL DEMONSTRATION WEEK

For one week—commencing Monday, April 4th.—our Dealers in every section of the nation will conduct a special series of demonstrations with the complete line of Paige cars.

Our "Daytona 6-66" model now holds the world's stock car record for speed. It will be the purpose of Demonstration Week to prove that any Paige car—in the hands of an unprofessional driver—is indeed Master of the Highway.

No other stock car has ever equalled our own speed record of 102.8 miles per hour. No other car, we are confident, can defeat a Paige in the milder tests of general demonstration work.

By proving itself the fastest car, the Paige 6-66 has revealed qualities of endurance and strength that are beyond dispute. World's championship form is a guarantee of all 'round efficiency—the best guarantee that the sporting world affords.

But these are facts that we want you to establish for yourself, and Demonstration Week offers an unrivaled opportunity. You have but to get in touch with our Dealer and he will book you for a ride that will prove finally convincing.

Then, with an actual record of the tests, you will be in position to compare the Paige 6-66 with any other motor car—at any price—on the American market.

You will also be able to determine whether the New Series "Glenbrook Six-44" is or is not the greatest dollar for dollar value in the light six field.

Surely no man could ask for a fairer or more sportsmanlike proposition.

Whether you contemplate buying a motor car or not, we very cordially invite you to ride with Paige during the coming week. It will prove a revelation, we believe—and a liberal education in strictly modern engineering.

Daily Market Report

STOCK EXCHANGE BUSINESS DULL

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Business on the stock exchange today was dull and narrow, but these conditions offered no serious obstacles to professional traders intent upon further depreciation of quoted values.

Losses among representative industrial was relatively moderate until towards the close when a drive against Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel and Studebaker at net declines of 1½ to 3 points unsettled the general list.

Pennsylvania was distinguished among the rails for another fractional decline to the new minimum price of 34, but other transportations were inactive and only slightly changed. Sales amonted to 265,000 shares.

Aside from an increase of $93,236,000 in actual net demand deposits the clearing house statement failed to reflect the heavy transfer of funds incident to the close of the year's first quarter.

Trading in bonds was nominal with a steady tone for liberty issues and most other prominent features.

Total sales par value $4,250,000.

SHARP RALLY IN WHEAT MARKET

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—General covering by shorts and the development of an active demand for both old and new wheat caused a sharp rally near the close today which carried prices upward after the lowest figures of the season had been reached on all deliveries of grains and provisions. At the finish wheat was 1¼ to 2⅜c net higher with May $1.37 to $1.37½ and July $1.16 to $1.16¼; corn was unchanged to ⅝@¾c higher, while oats ranged from ⅛@¼c down to ⅝c up and provisions were off 22½ to 75c.

There was a sharp bulge in wheat prices during the last fifteen minutes of trading and most of this held up to the close. There had been many rallies but most of them lacked force. Reports of as high as four million bushels of wheat being worked for export and a St. Louis report to the effect that wheat had been worked for export based on the July delivery, tended also to unnerve shorts. Crop reports continued to show an excellent condition over the greater part of the belt.

Coarse grains rallied with wheat but offerings were light, farmers being said to be busy and were not selling corn and oats to arrive very freely. Provisions were weaker and lower early with grains and on scattered selling, but rallied toward the finish.

THREAD-RUBBER Willard STORAGE BATTERY INSULATION

Which Battery?

You won't be satisfied with a car unless you are satisfied with the battery.

The Willard Threaded Rubber Battery not only gives the right service to begin with, but keeps on giving it, and actually outlasts the battery plates.

The plates are insulated—not merely separated. And the Threaded Rubber Insulation neither warps, cracks, nor punctures, because unlike wood separators, it is not affected by battery acid.

Drive around. Ask questions. We give authorized Willard Service.

CAPPS IS ELECTED HEAD OF CHICAGO I. C. ASSOCIATION

President Rammelkamp Returns From Illinois College Alumni Meeting at University Club.

The Chicago Society of Illinois college held a very successful banquet on Thursday evening at the University club. About fifty alumni and friends were present.

Instead of devoting the entire evening to the usual discussion of college affairs, the program committee had invited Rufus C. Dawes to speak to the club on the subject of the Illinois State Constitutional Convention. Mr. Dawes was one of the representatives of Cook county in the convention. Like his father, General Rufus R. Dawes, and his brother, General Charles G. Dawes, the speaker is an alumnus of Marietta college.

Before speaking of the work of the convention, he referred to the history of Marietta and the similarity of that college to "Old Illinois." In discussing the convention, Mr. Dawes spoke especially of the principle of proportional representation and the relation of Cook county to the rest of the state. While willing to concede that the influence of Cook county in the government of the state should be restricted in some respects, the speaker thought it would be unfair to restrict the representation of Cook county in both senate and house. The address was an unusually interesting and strong one.

The other speakers on the program included President Rammelkamp, who spoke on the relation of Illinois college to some of the important historic movements in Illinois, Edward Clifford, '96, who spoke on the subject of alumni loyalty, and incidentally paid a high tribute to Dr. Edward Capps, '87, for his work as chairman of the Alumni Fund Association; and William D. Wood, '72, who spoke on Early Days. Near the end of the meeting, Dr. W. A. Shanklin, president of Wesleyan university in Connecticut, came in as a guest of President Rammelkamp. Dr. Shanklin presented greetings from Wesleyan university, and spoke briefly of the Greatness of the Small College. Walter W. Ross, '88, president of the association, acted as toastmaster. As is customary at the Chicago meetings, there was considerable singing led by Henry W. Kirby, '97. Resolutions of sympathy on the death of Charles S. Rannells, '79, were passed, and greetings were ordered to be sent to Mendal G. Frampton, '98, president of the newly organized Illinois College Alumni Association of Southern California.

The newly elected officers for next year were: Dr. Joseph A. Capps, '91, president; Edwin D. Jackson, '05; secretary and as executive committee, Edward Bullard, '16; Victor Nelson, '00, and J. E. Winterbotham, '03.

Others present at the supper were the following:

A. D. Black, '92; Fred Bray, '20; E. R. Branson, '97; W. B. Burr, '00; C. C. Clement, '01; Edward Clifford, 96; R. W. Cooke, '02; E. M. Duckles, '99; H. J. Dunbaugh, '99; F. R. Elliott, '98; A. F. Ewert, '04; William Floreth, '20; Philip Gillett, '92; Glenn Stricklett, '20; J. G. Winterbotham, '02; C. A. Balch, '00; W. A. Kirby, '60; Homer Bale, '17; W. S. Elliott, '00; B. J. O. Shunk, '99.

Among guests present were, in addition to Mr. Dawes, President Shanklin, C. H. Widmayer and Dr. G. E. Shambaugh, F. E. Baldwin.

I am reducing all prices on gang and sulky plows, disc harrows, corn planters, cultivators, until present stock is exhausted. 15 per cent off from my present selling price. W. E. Murry, Literberry, Ill.
